Trust in the Lord with all your heart. Never rely on what you think you know. Remember the Lord in everything you do, and he will show you the right way. Never let yourself think that you are wiser than you are; simply obey the Lord and refuse to do wrong. If you do, it will be like a good medicine, healing your wounds and easing your pains. Honour the Lord by making him an offering from the best of all that your land produces. If you do your barns will be filled with grain and you will have too much wine to be able to store it all. When the Lord corrects you, my son, pay close attention and take it as a warning. Proverbs 3:5-11 GNB.

Task:

(b) Explain the nature of God according to African traditional religion reflected in the Bible text above.

ITEM 2:

She keeps herself busy making wool and linen cloth. She brings home food from out of the way places of merchant ship do. She gets up before daylight to prepare food for her family and to tell her servant women what to do. She looks at land and buys it and with the money she earned, she plants a vine yard. She is a hard worker, strong and industrious. She spins her own threads and weaves her own cloth; she is generous to the poor and needy". (Proverbs 31: 10-20 GNB)

Task:

(a) How is the Bible text above helping Christian wives to live stably in marriage?

(b) Explain the conduct of some wives in modern marriages that differ from those in the Bible text above.

A group of workers at a prominent manufacturing industry in Uganda are dissatisfied with consistent delays in their monthly salaries and poor management of their welfare needs. They are made to work overtime without compensation, denied time for leisure and are often terminated without prior notice. Despite the company's raising profits in recent years, these profits have come at the cost of workers' exploitation. As a result, the workers have resolved to go on strike.

However, students in this school have started abusing this time through drug abuse, coupling, bullying others and some even escape and go to the surrounding towns for films.
