SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

A GAME WARDEN

My father is Ojok William. He is a game warden in Kidepo National Park in Kabong. A game warden is a person who protects wild animals from the hunters and takes care of them. People who kill wild animals in game parks are called poachers. He says that it is hard to work in game parks because he sometimes fears that animals might kill him when he is moving around the game park.

He meets different animals like the giraffe which is the tallest, the elephant which is the biggest and the lion which is the king of the jungle. He likes his job because he enjoys looking at different animals. The wild animals can be found in game parks, game reserves and zoos.

They are important because the country gets a lot of money from the tourists who come to see them.

GRASSHOPPERS

The day grasshoppers fly
Everyone is awake in the night
To fill the sacks tight
With grasshoppers
Of different colours
Green, brown and grey
Tasty, tasty grasshoppers

The day grasshoppers fly
Everyone is up and about
No boredom, no sleep
Because of the search
For grasshoppers to fry
And eat at home
Or sell the rest in the market
Tasty, tasty grasshopper.
