SECTION B: 60 MARKS

51. Read the passage below and answer question about it in full sentences:

Winnie was a pupil at Kakira Primary School in Alebtong district. She loved learning new things especially when she could write. One day, her teacher of English, Mr. Ogal taught her how to write a letter. At first, she was a bit nervous, but Mr. Ogal was very patient with her. He explained each step slowly and made sure she understood. He even gave her lots of examples so that she could practice.

Winnie practiced writing letters every day. She wrote to her friends, family and even to her teachers. With Mr. Ogal's help, she became really good at it. She can now write any kind of letter at any time if she feels like even when she is woken up from sleep. She has become so happy because she can write letters on her own.

She went ahead and told her friends about how she learnt to write letters. They were all proud of her. She said that Mr. Ogal was her best teacher because he took time to help her understand everything. Winnie is now very confident, and she can write error free letters. She said that she was praying for examiners to set any question regarding letter writing so that she could show them her skills.

Here we are on the farm
Moving freely and eating food
With our children very happy.
For they are sure of enough milk.

How lucky are we
For having got a master
Who really cares about us
He gives us water every evening.

Oh! Our dear master
Count yourself very lucky.
For we shall also give you milk
For your family to enjoy.

Our only prayer to you, master
Treat us when we fall sick
So that we can provide you with the best
Even your crops will benefit from our dung.
