

223/1

Christian

Religious Education

Paper 1

$2\frac{1}{2}$ hours

Apex Examination Council

MOCK EXAMINATIONS 2025

Uganda certificate of education

CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

Paper 1

2 hours 30 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES;

This paper consists of 2 sections A and B with 6 items.

Section A has 2 Compulsory items.

Section B has 2 parts I and II where a learner MUST choose 1 item from each part.

Respond to only 4 items in all.

Any additional item(s) responded to will not be scored.

All items carry equal scores.

All responses MUST be written in the response booklet(s) provided.

SECTION A

Answer both items in this section.

Item 1.

"All you that are righteous, shout for joy for what the Lord has done; praise him, all you that Obey him. Give thanks to the lord with harps, sing him with stringed instruments. Sing new songs to him, play the harp with skill, and shout for joy! The words of the Lord are true and his works are dependable. The Lord loves what is righteous and just, his constant love fills the earth". Psalms 33:1-5 (GNB).

Tasks;

- a) How are the worship practices among Christians today reflected in the Bible text above?
- b) Explain the traditional African worship practices that disagree with those in the text above.

Item 2.

Mr. Ssekitto is a resident of one of the districts in central Uganda. He used to be a wealthy man by the time he married his wife Eva eight years ago, God blessed them with two male children. However, Mr. Ssekitto's wealth has kept reducing until he sold everything to deal with the debts and has now remained with too little. His wife Eva has as a result started becoming unfaithful, running after rich men claiming that her husband can no longer provide enough for her, she is now five months pregnant for another man according to DNA test. This has caused a very serious domestic disagreement as Mr. Ssekitto is considering chasing his wife out of his house. Their friends both religious and traditional have tried to solve this trouble but it seems not ending soon.

Tasks;

- a) What are the Christian views about marriage that can help to make this marriage stable?
- b) How were cases like those in the scenario above handled in the African traditional set ups.

SECTION B.

Part I.

Respond to only one item in this part.

Item 3.

".....And God said, let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let him have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every Creeping thing that creeps upon the earth..." So, God created man in his own image, in the image of God created him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth....." (Genesis 1:26-28 GNB)

Tasks;

- a) How can the above text encourage hard work among Christians today?
- b) Relate the views about work in the above text with the Traditional African views.

Item 4.

There are young men who graduated in university with degrees in commercial planning, they at once got hired by a big company, they were put to too much salary and other fringe benefits which excited them and resorted to wasting all their moneys and forgot to plan for their tomorrow. Today, they are still living in rentals, have no piece of land in their names, not married or even possessing a bicycle or any sign that they are going to develop. Their money goes to women, alcohol, drugs and betting. Their parents have quarreled with them but nothing has changed, they have sent them religious friends to talk to the but they don't give them ears. They have received many warning letters from their bosses but have refused to change.

Tasks;

- a) What are the Christian teaching about wealth and development that can help the two young men to develop themselves?
- b) Explain the African Traditional approaches towards wealth and development that go against the ones in the above scenario.

Part II
Respond to only one item in this part.

Item 5.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone. If it is possible, as far as it possible for you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "it is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord. On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head" Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (Romans 12:17-18)

Tasks;

- a) How can the message in the text above guide Christians today to live a just world?
- b) Explain the contemporary views about justice that are different from the text in the text above.

Item 6.

Kabonge and Julius are two close friends in one of the schools in Wakiso who have been sharing each and every secret both personal and family. A few weeks ago, Julius started to hear some of the secrets about him that only Kabonge knows, this forced Julius to publically confront Kabonge in the dormitory. This has caused mistrust, betrayal and total loss of friendship. A few of their friends have tried to help them sort the problem but Julius looks determined not forgive Kabonge, at one point it was discovered that Julius was planning to poison Kabonge's meal which increased the tension and nothing has changed.

Tasks;

- a) Explain the Christian teachings that can help the two friends in the scenario above friends again.
- b) How were situations like those in the above scenario handled in African Traditional set up?

END