

P230/1
ENTREPRENEURSHIP
EDUCATION
NOVEMBER, 2025
2 $\frac{1}{2}$ HOURS

UGANDA CERTIFICATE OF EDUCATION

S5 END OF TERM III 2025

2 hours 30 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS

- ✓ This paper consists of 3 sections A, B and C
- ✓ Section B has one compulsory item
- ✓ Choose one item from section of A and C
- ✓ Any point without justification shall be underscored.

SECTION A

Item I

Albert operates hotel near his town. Last month he got feedback from his customers complaining that employees take long to serve them. Sometimes the food is burnt or smelling smoke of firewood. When some customers are served and they don't eat the food, they are forced to pay for it. At times some of the orders are not prepare thus customers go back without food. The hotel is 2km far from the town centre which makes it difficult for customers to go there. Community members were also heard complaining of poor garbage disposal from the hotel and even the local council authorities are threatening to close the restaurant for his failure to file and remit tax returns. Albert is now confused on what to do to calm the situation.

TASK

- a) Use your production and marketing skills to advise albert on ways of reviving his business.
- b) Explain to Albert on how best creative selling process can be conducted to widen his market share.

ITEM II

Sarah, the sales manager at Bright Future Entreprises sent a message to her assistant John saying “Prepare 20 boxes for delivery to our new client”. She didn’t mention which product or which client. John assumed she meant stationery and packed 20 boxes instead of office chairs. The wrong goods were delivered and the company incurred extra transport costs to correct the mistakes. This was as a result of ineffective communication.

TASK

Using your knowledge from communication skills

- a) Advise Sarah on principles of Effective communication.
- b) Ways of Ensuring effective communication in an enterprise.

SECTION B

ITEM III

Shillat a senior Five student in Budhope decided to start a small bakery in her home town using her little savings and an oven from her aunt. She learnt baking skills on Tik tok. At first, she faced challenges like few customers and power shortage. She remained determined even when she was faced with challenges. She introduced new cake designs and improved packaging materials.

Her creativity and hard work attracted more customers since she wakes up early to attend their orders and she is now planning to open up a branch in town centre.

TASK

As a student of entrepreneurship, explain

- (a) Different Traits possessed by Shillat as a successful business person.
- (b) Advise her on different ways of fostering creativity and innovation in her Bakery.
- (c) Examples of risks that are likely to be encountered in her Bakery
- (d) Responsibilities of Shillat's Bakery to the development of her community.

SECTION C

ITEM IV

Green cycle is a newly established enterprise the down town of Kawoko that aims to reduce plastic waste in the local community. The enterprise needs to collect plastic wastes from households, polyethene papers, broken jerrycans and recycle them into innovative products such as bags, wallets, shoes and Jewelry.

The enterprise also needs to provide training and employment opportunities for youth from disadvantaged background. This probe the founders of the enterprise to first have a root cause analysis of which they are not familiar with.

You have been approached by the founder of green cycle to develop for them detailed procedure of becoming a person of change.

TASK

Using knowledge from social entrepreneurship;

- a) Develop the detailed procedure for creating social impact in Kawoko.
- b) Advise people of Kawoko on the benefits of Green Cycle in their community.

ITEM V

You are part of a team tasked with launching a school café that sells healthy snakes to students. The school administration has provided a small budget and a vacant room for the café. Your team lacks knowledge on preparing plan that can guide them to focus on the nature of the business in a logical and organized way.

TASK

- (a) Explain the elements of above plan in details
- (b) Advise the team on the aspects of the plan that determine the position of their project in present market situation.

END