SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

At Kamala Primary School in Jinja, there was a special event, election of prefects. This event caused a lot of happiness to the pupils because they were going to choose their leaders. Several posts were competed for but the post of head girl got many competitors. Six girls applied for this post and they all wanted to be voted.

Agatha was one of the six girls who applied. She was very smart and knew a lot about her opponents. She studied their strengths and weaknesses and used this to help her gather enough support during campaigns. When the day of voting came, many people voted for her and she won with a very big margin. Everyone was happy for her and praised her for being so clever.

Agatha felt proud because she had worked hard and used her brain to win the election. After three days, she was sworn in as the head girl of the school and she promised to work hard and bring peace at school. She also promised to fight for the rights of all the girls at school.
