ITEM 3.

All ill-gotten treasures have no lasting value, but righteousness delivers from death. The Lord does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked. Lazy hands make for poverty, but diligent hands bring wealth. He who gathers crops in the summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps during harvests is a disgraceful son. Blessings crown the heads of the righteous, but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked. The name of the righteous is used in blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot. The wise in heart accepts commands, but the chattering fool comes to ruin. (Proverbs 10:2-8 NIV).

- b) Explain the traditional African approaches about work which are in light of the bible text above.
