Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each.

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Kulata Juan is my name. I live in Katine Sub-County. Not long ago, we received heavy rain which caused floods in many parts of the sub-county. These floods did not leave us the same. Several people were displaced. They did not have food to eat and safe water to drink. Soon, many fell sick. Across the river, many children stopped going to school. The roads were impassable.

Families like mine were fortunate. Our home was on raised land. So, to us life remained quite normal. We still went to school and had meals every day.

"I feel sorry for our neighbours who are suffering because of the floods," my friend Ayo said when I met her.

"It is really terrible," I said.

That very day, Ayo and I met Ms. Ankunda, our class teacher. We talked to her about the floods. We suggested that we help the needy children.

"How can we help?" she asked, thinking for a while. "Well, what do you think they are lacking?"

"I believe they don't have what to eat and what to wear," I responded. "Many families have lost their property."

"That's true," Ms. Ankunda said, nodding. "We need to share this with the whole class."

Surprisingly, the whole class welcomed the idea right away.

"This is good. We can't just watch fellow children suffer," Rembo, who uses a wheelchair, said.

The following day, our P.7 classroom was full of food items and clothes. When our head teacher saw this, he was shocked and delighted at the same time. He encouraged the whole school to do the same. When the sub-county Chief learnt of this, he was filled with joy. He thanked the school for setting a good example to other schools.

54. Read the poem below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

The joy of school holidays,
No more routines,
No more waking up early
Just fun and freedom, no need to worry.

Excitement is everywhere,
Time to play with friends,
Or to read a good book until it ends,
The choice is mine!

Time to learn to cook,
Or to pick my fish hook.
Maybe time to take trips
And enjoy some chips.

But to spend time on social media,
Isn't the best choice my dear.
And to dodge household chores,
Is a conflict with my seniors.
