THE SPORTS DAY

Nkondo Primary School organised a sports day. All the pupils were divided into houses and in each house, a leader was elected by pupils of that house. The houses were Nile, Victoria, Kyoga and Albert. Victoria had its leader Catherine. All the teachers liked Catherine because she was hardworking and well behaved.

Catherine was at first doing well, as she was practising with her house members daily. Time came when she started doing the opposite. She became proud of herself in front of other pupils. Whenever she was given some items like glucose and sugarcane to be given out during practice, Catherine kept them to go and share with her friends in the dormitory. Her behaviour did not please the members of the house. They decided to report the matter to the house master.

One morning, the teachers and pupils of Victoria house gathered to prepare for general practice for all the houses. During the meeting, members talked about Catherine's conduct. Some said that they had given up but the teachers advised Catherine to apologize to the members.

In the afternoon, the pupils assembled for the practice. They saw Victoria's participants coming in last in each race.

Catherine lost fame and became quiet. The rest of the houses beat Victoria in each and every event. After the general practice, she apologized and called upon them to regain house spirit. This made her buy glucose using some of her pocket money.

The awaited day came and participants assembled in the field. In the first event of the long race, the first and third positions were taken by Victoria house.

When the results of the field events were brought at the recording table, Victoria house was leading in most of them and this made Catherine and her house-mates very happy.

Finally, results were announced. Guess what! Victorians were champions of the year in Nkondo Primary school and they won themselves a bull.

Last term, Malindo Primary School held an election. Ms Dorothy Awor, the chairperson of the school Electoral Commission, organised the elections. She pinned the lists of posts on the notice board. She asked the pupils to apply for the posts. Many pupils applied including the well-known boy, Bouncer Bino also known as BB. He was known in the school because of his pride. He applied for the post of head boy. As soon as BB handed in his application, he changed his style of walking.

Friday was the day for general campaigns. The chairperson called candidates to address the pupils. When BB was called upon, pupils cheered him "Our boy BB! Our boy BB!" However, he was disturbed by something: he had no money to please his supporters.

When he returned home that evening, he asked his dad for some money for campaigns. BB was very excited when his dad gave him some money. He bought sweets, pancakes, buns and gave them quietly to every pupil he believed was his supporter. On the day of the elections, the head teacher, Mr. Matovu was there to monitor the process. He wanted to ensure that there was no rigging. Indeed, the elections were free and fair. When Ms. Dorothy Awor announced the results, a very humble boy who did not spend money was elected head boy. Bouncer Bino had lost. He was very disappointed and so were his parents. BB accepted the results and advised his supporters to work together with the newly elected prefects. Mr. Matovu appreciated BB's action and thanked him for the good spirit of togetherness.

Questions

- a. What was held in Mahindo Primary School?

- b. Who was the chairperson of the Electoral Commission?

- c. Where was the list of the posts pinned?

4. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow. (PLE 2012)

Last week, Primary Seven pupils of Molo Boarding Primary School went for an educational tour. They visited Mrs. Byakika's farm at Kalonyi. This followed their Science lesson on domestic animals by Mr. Amu.

The pupils started preparing for the journey as soon as the lesson ended. Some children washed and ironed their uniforms. Others wrote down questions they would ask the Farm Manager.

The following morning on Friday, they woke up very early, to prepare. They bathed, dressed up and had breakfast. Immediately the school bus reached the parking yard, they just boarded. On their way, they saw many important places. Their Social Studies teacher showed them Mabira forest and Kakira Sugar Factory. Other places were Coca-Cola plant and Kile Tea Estate. He told them how important these places were to the country.

At the farm, they were welcomed by Mrs. Byakika herself. They were all surprised to see the old woman managing very well. She had only four workers. The farm was divided into two units. These were units of livestock and crops. The livestock unit was for poultry, pigs and dairy cows. The crops grown in the farm were maize, coffee and greens.

With the help of workers, Mrs. Byakika led the pupils to the different units. At each unit, she explained the activities that were taking place there. Some pupils asked questions which she answered very well. She encouraged pupils to start rearing cattle and poultry in their homes. Many pupils left the farm promising to start their own farms when they grow up.

6. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow. (PLE 2015)

The Ministry of Health has built centres in our communities. They are basically put in place to provide health services to the people. They provide medical care and counselling services. They have doctors and nurses to handle patients.

In-all, health centres, people are advised and encouraged to eat food that does not have harmful substances. They provide drugs to patients and pregnant women. HIV/AIDS victims are given free treatment by the government through the health centres.

To be free from some diseases, people should avoid disease vectors like rats, mosquitoes, fleas and others. These disease vectors spread malaria, cholera, typhoid and dysentery. In order to control the diseases, many measures should be taken into consideration. Such measures include: slashing the bushes around homesteads, using clean water, washing our bodies, spraying with insecticides and removing stagnant water around homesteads.

Questions

a. Who built health centres in our communities?

b. To whom do they provide health services?

c. What do doctors and nurses provide?

d. What type of food shouldn't people eat?

BUNDIBUGYO P/S
PO.BOX 8 BUNDIBUGYO.
2nd November, 2005

Dear Patel,

Thank you for your letter which was full of news. It is quite interesting to note that India too has a Universal Primary Education system.

In your letter, you wanted answers to a number of questions concerning our Universal Primary Education (UPE) in short. First, you asked about the number of children that have benefited from the UPE system. Well, the number of primary school-going children has increased suddenly from around two million in 1997 to about seven million in 2005. My country shall soon boast of a literate population.

Secondly, you wanted to know the attitude of my people towards the girl-child. You know before UPE was introduced, most Ugandans believed that girls were expected to do nothing else but to remain at home to do all types of work. Funny enough, even girls and women had this same view about themselves. The girls could be married-off at quite an early age. Imagine, a girl of thirteen years being proposed for marriage.

Well, my dear Patel, things are now different. The girls are reading hard and many of them have reached high levels of education and have been appointed to top jobs in the country. We, for example, have over a dozen women holding high posts in the government. These women are fighting for the rights of the girl-child and their fellow women in my country.

It is my hope that I have answered your questions. Please let me know in your next letter something about your secondary education system. Once more, thank you for writing. Please extend my best greetings to your family.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Kambale.

Questions

- In which country does the writer of this letter live?

- To whom is the letter addressed?

- What view did the girls and women have about themselves before UPE was introduced?

- In which way is the primary education system in the writer's country similar to that of his friend?

- Why is it wrong for a girl of thirteen years to get married?

- Give another word with the same meaning as each of the underlined words in the letter.
 - Suddenly: _____

(ii) Attitude: _____

(iii) Extend: _____

g. Who fights for the rights of the girl-child in Uganda today?

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer, in full sentences the questions that follow. (RLE 2002)

One Monday morning, Obibi was miserable. This was because it was the beginning of the usual week-long suffering at school.

Obibi was in Primary Two. In order not to miss staying at home to play with other village children, he developed a plan. He picked his school bag, pretending to go to school. The school was two kilometres from his home.

After moving alone along a bushy path to school, he branched off to a nearby bush and hid himself under spear grass. This was around 8:00 a.m.

As he was busy preparing his resting place, some hunters approached the bush where he was hiding. Obibi did not know that the roasted cassava he had attracted the dogs. The dogs started running towards his hiding bush at a great speed and the hunters followed hurriedly. They thought the dogs had got the smell of a wild animal.

Obibi foolishly kept on shaking the grass. One hunter then aimed his spear at the shaking bush. Obibi was only saved when one dog jumped to his hiding place. He then made a very loud surprising noise which made the hunters and the dogs to run to different directions. They thought it was a ghost, the god of the forest.

The hunters and the dogs then took off in fear for their lives. Obibi ran up to home to report to his parents how he escaped death. Instead of punishing Obibi, the parents thanked God for saving his life and warned him never to dodge going to school again.

6. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow. (RLE 2007)

One evening, while Mugisha was listening to news read on radio by Sungura, he heard that the RLE results for 2007 had been released. Mugisha became worried because he was one of the candidates.

Releasing the results at the ministry headquarters, the Honourable Minister of Education and Sports was happy to note that most of the candidates had passed.

The general performance showed that Mathematics was the best done subject. The minister congratulated all the teachers of Mathematics on overcoming the old thinking that the subject was hard. She hoped that the country would be able to produce more engineers and doctors.

She thanked the pupils who worked hard to produce the wonderful results. She also thanked the teachers who taught those young men and women tirelessly. She was happy with the parents who send their children to school and warned those that didn't to stop the habit otherwise the law would get them.

The minister also noted that she was releasing true results because the examinations had been done without any malpractice.

She called upon the head teachers of all the primary schools in the country to have a high level of discipline in their schools.

Questions

a. Who read the news on the radio?

b. Why did Mugisha become worried?

c. Why was the minister happy with the PLE results?

Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

(RLE 2008)

Nante is a Hima girl. Like other Hima girls, she looks after her father's cattle during holidays. This activity keeps her out of home from morning to dusk.

One morning, Nante could not find her skin sandals. This type of sandals are worn by cattle herders to guard their feet against thorns and stones. She therefore, went barefoot to the grazing area.

Nante is a person who enjoys her job, but on this particular day, it was different. Her feet were badly prickled by thorns. Worse still, they were hurt by sharp stones too. As a result, she could not move anymore so she sat under a tree to rest and fell asleep. The cattle were grazing near a maize garden. They invaded this garden and destroyed part of the crops.

At this time, the owner of the garden noticed the animals. He rushed to the scene but it was too late to save part of his crop. He was too shocked to say a word! He angrily chased the animals out of the garden.

Nante was immediately awoken by the footsteps of the cattle. She then asked him where he was taking the animals. Without a word, the angry man hit her with a stick and she collapsed. "So, these are your cattle?" he asked. "Look at my garden!"

Nante realised her mistake and painfully said, "excuse me, sir, I am sorry. Look at my feet full of thorns. They are so painful that I am unable to run after the animals. My sandals got lost at home. Please forgive me."

Ntambale then felt pity on Nante and said, "I am sorry, I see now that it was not your fault. I shall meet your father and talk to him about my destroyed crops."

Questions

a. What do Hima girls do?

b. How do we know that Nante goes to school?

c. Which people wear the skin sandals according to the passage?

d. Why did Nante find looking after cattle more difficult on that day?

e. What happened to Nante when she sat under a tree?

Silliest title for the story

They should also give them all their parental care

Perhaps the best answer would be 'Unity is strength.'

Finally, the children themselves must be highly disciplined

What makes some children do well in their examinations?

In addition, they must be obedient to both their parents and teachers.

First of all, the parent must play their part well.

Secondly, the teachers must teach them well

This is really a very difficult question to answer

They must always mark their books properly.

This is by sending their children to school

Reporter: Are you Aleper?

Aleper: Yes, I am.

Reporter: Who are your parents?

Aleper: My father is Lolut and my mother is Anyango.

Reporter: Don't they have other names, for example Christian or Moslem names?

Aleper: No, they don't.

Reporter: And how old are you?

Aleper: I don't know my age, nobody has ever told me.

Reporter: Hasn't anyone ever told you what was happening when you were born?

Aleper: My mother one day said I was born the day Museveni first visited our district.

Reporter: When was that?

Aleper: She didn't tell me.

Reporter: UNEB says you were the best PLE candidate last year in the whole district. Were you happy to hear that?

Aleper: Yes, I was very happy.

Reporter: And your parents, were they happy too?

Aleper: I told them. They didn't say anything that day. The following day my father asked me, "Are they going to make you a teacher in your school?"

Reporter: What was your reply?

Aleper: I told him "No". Two days later, our headmaster came home and explained to them. My mother slaughtered a big he-goat for me.

Reporter: Did you invite some of your former classmates to join you in the celebration?

Aleper: No, I didn't.

Reporter: Why not?

Aleper: Most of those in our villages had not done well. They were unhappy. Some had failed completely. Even Rose who passed in Division 2 did not come. I had invited her.

Reporter: Which secondary school are you joining? I mean what was your first choice?

Aleper: Busoga College Mwiri.

Reporter: You think they will take you with your aggregate of 10?

Aleper: I don't know.

Reporter: What do you hope to become in future?

Aleper: I would like to become a politician like Apira John, he is a very powerful man in our country.

Reporter: So you want power?

Aleper: Yes, I do.

Reporter: Were you a leader or prefect in primary school?

Aleper: Yes, I was the headboy.

Reporter: I see. I see. Well, thank you Aleper. I wish you success in your studies and in your future plans. We might one day hear of Honourable Aleper, Member of Parliament.

(They both laughed. The New Vision reporter went back to town).

14. Read the passage below very carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow:

One week before the end of the school first term, the District Education Officer of Kibu District wrote a letter to all the head teachers of primary schools in the district. This is what the DEO said in the letter.

“All the head teachers of government and private schools must follow what the Minister of Education and Sports said about school holidays. The minister said that no primary school in the whole country is allowed to do any teaching during the school holidays.

All primary school children must be at home. They must rest at home. They need a rest. Children work very hard at school for three months in a term and so they need a rest. Some clever children have even written letters to the Ministry of Education to complain that they are being overworked by making them study during holidays. These children are right. Their brains must rest for some time.

Parents too must be informed that children need a rest during school holidays. There are a number of things parents must remember if they want their children to rest properly during the holidays. The first one is that parents must not look for private teachers to teach or coach their children during holidays. The child cannot learn much at that time; the brain is still very tired. The parent is therefore paying the private teacher money for doing nothing to the child. The second thing to remember is that the children should do a lot of play while they are at home for holidays. They can also help their parents with some work.

Let me say it again. No teaching during the holidays. My inspectors will be visiting schools, classrooms and private places to see if there is any teaching going on anywhere.”

Questions

a. When did the DEO of Kibu District write the letter?

b. To whom was the letter written?

c. What was the most important thing the minister said?

d. Why is it useless for parents to look for private teachers during holidays?

e. Write down two things children should do during holidays.

1. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

My name is Nakato and I am a Primary Seven candidate in Piri Boarding Primary School. I have a short story to share with fellow candidates.

Last year, during the second term holiday, my mother sent me to the market. She wanted me to buy a pumpkin. I asked Bruno, my half-brother, to come along with me. A short distance away from home, we met an old man. He was carrying a bag made out of dry palm leaves. He looked like a very poor old man from village. He smiled and greeted us. Bruno answered but I kept quiet. I did not like the way he was dressed. He then asked us to direct him to the house of the lawyer, Mr. Mutebi. I never wanted Bruno to direct him to our home but he did. This hurt me so much that I felt like fighting Bruno. He told me that it was bad manners to treat strangers like that.

Immediately we got back home, my mother welcomed us. She was very happy to have a visitor. The visitor was the old man we had met on the way. She asked us to greet him. Bruno went immediately and shook his hand. I pretended that I was taking the pumpkin to the kitchen, My mother was very angry with me. She asked if that was the kind of respect I showed to elders. She continued to shout at me saying the old man was my grandfather. "Cairn down my daughter, Nakato, has heard." Said the old man.

He then picked a watch from his bag and handed it to my half-brother. Bruno, may God bless you my grandson," he said.

Oh my God! I missed a very beautiful watch. I was ashamed before my mother and grandfather too.

Fellow candidates, I advise you to always respect elders. It is also important to help and direct strangers. Always respect, love and care for everyone.

Questions

2. Read the following poem carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

I have a dream

That one day in the future all the little girls

And little boys in this country

Will be great women and men

Governing this country

In a spirit of love.

I have a dream...

My little boy will not despise my little girl

Because she is a girl

And that my little girl will not hate

My little boy because their daddy will have left him

All the wealth because he is a boy.

I have a dream...

That a day will come when

All our little boys will be Responsible fathers educating their children

And all our little girls will be.

Loving mothers caring for their children.

I have a dream...

That one day all our little girls and little boys

Will walk hand in hand with their children

Singing songs of love and freedom

In a world where there is no hatred

In the world covered with flowers and love

3. Read the following poem carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Happy are John and Mary

They have never touched a broom or a hoe

One week day, my uncle drives them to school

One weekend they spend their time playing.

I, a poor herdsboy, will never go to school.

My uncle says education is not for the orphans.

John and Mary say I am illiterate.

I cannot discuss with them.

Every day I take animals to graze.

Every night I guard the home.

John and Mary call me a breathing machine.

Which never gets tired.

When a cow gets lost, I am whipped,

When animals eat crops, I am insulted.

John and Mary say I am useless;

I am not fit to stay at their home.

I am always in fear...

Fear of the daily heat of the sun.

Fear of the daily cold at night.

Happy are the children of my uncle.

Questions

a. What do John and Mary do on weekend?

Defilement! Defilement!
What a social evil!
In towns, villages, school, homes
Everywhere defilement!
Young girls and boys are victims.

The merciless people!
The sugar daddies and mummies,
Trick young girls and boys,
Using money and other gifts.
To meet their selfish desires.

*Everyday innocent girls and boys,
Are infected with HIV/AIDS!
Some dropout of school
While others die,
Due to defilement*

*This is my advice!
Young girls and boys say NO to money and gifts
The police, help arrest
And prosecute the men and women,
Who commit such crimes.*

Zawadi was woken up by a loud crowing of a cock in the neighbourhood. She sat on her bed and this time, forgot to pray, like she used to do. She jumped out of her bed only to realise that everybody was still asleep. She tip-toed to her parent's bedroom. Just at the doorway, she heard some snoring. This confirmed her expectation. "Now is the chance to let everybody know that I can wake up before them." She said to herself happily. In a few minutes she was already dressed and set for school. Opening the door quietly, she got out. She started her journey to school. She was surprised walking for some distance without meeting anybody. This didn't scare her. She continued with her journey until she met a man. The man looked unkind but proved to be kind when he asked to give her a lift on his bicycle. Zawadi accepted and thanked him.

The man rode very fast and even faster towards the school. She told the man that he had passed the school but he pretended not to have heard. The louder she shouted, the faster he rode, Zawadi realised that she was in danger. She immediately prayed to God and contained her tears. When they reached a trading centre and saw some people, she shouted for help. "This man is kidnapping me! Kidnapping! She shouted. People at the trading centre started running after them. Those who had bicycles rode faster after him. Finally, they caught up with him. The man realising danger, abandoned the bicycle and fled for his life.

The strong men ran after him while women remained with Zawadi listening to her story. Luckily enough, the man was caught and brought back to the trading centre. He was handed over to police. The man was taken to court and charged. He was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for attempted kidnap. Zawadi was handed over to her parents.

(PLE 2006)

Long ago, there was a hunter who used to catch animals using a trap. One day he set a trap in one of the thick bushes near his home. After some hours, he went to check his trap. He was sure that he would find that at least an animal in it. As he walked nearer the trap, he saw a snake in it. The man was shocked.

"So it is inside my trap." the man said.

"Please let me out!" the snake cried.

"I've got you this time!" Said the man, as he started looking for a big stick.

"Please don't kill me! If you let me out, we shall be good friends," said the snake.

"If I let you out of the trap, will you promise that you won't bite me," asked the man.

"I promise! I promise that I won't bite you. You will be very safe if you let me out of this dangerous trap." replied the snake.

"Alright. I will let you out." said the man.

So the man set the snake free.

"Aha! I'm now free. I'm now going to bite you because you were the one who set the trap." said the snake. Just as the snake was about to jump on the man, Mr Rat arrived at the scene.

"What is the matter?" Mr Rat asked.

"I had set my trap to catch animals but this unfriendly snake got caught in it. He begged me to let him out and he promised not to bite me if I set him free. After letting him out, he changed his mind. He was just about to bite me when you arrived," the man said.

"I see! I see!" said Mr Rat as he was now thinking of what should be done.

"Let's do this: could you set the trap again and let me see exactly how the snake got caught in it?"

Mr Rat asked the man.

"Yes, i will do that," replied the man as he set the trap again.

"Now my friend, Mr Snake get in and let's see how you got caught in this trap." Mr Rat said politely. The snake agreed and entered the trap. Once more, he was unable to escape.

"There you are" Mr Rat told the man.

"Now you can go ahead and kill him so that we are safe." Mr Rat added. The man collected a big stick and killed the snake.

"What can I do to reward you?" the man asked Mr Rat.

"It's simple, I want you to allow me to come and I live in your house forever. We shall share whatever you eat," replied Mr. Rat. The man agreed.

10. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

One Saturday, I went with my mother to Biraga market which is one of the biggest in our sub-county. I had a duck which uncle Opoya gave me when it was a duckling. I went to sell it so as to buy myself a pair of shoes for Christmas. Mother took a goat for sale so as to purchase various items for the big occasion.

On our way, we met farmers and traders bringing different items to the market. By ten o'clock, we had reached the market.

At the market entrance, there was a rope stretching from one side to the other. This blocked people from entering the market directly. Mother had to pay some coins to the gentlemen who later allowed us in. Many other people were already at the market with different commodities heaped on the ground and others were in the stalls. Some traders sang songs to attract as many customers as possible. I stood still listening and enjoying the interesting songs.

We sat down in the tree shade and waited anxiously for customers. Some customers tried to bargain but mother did not want to sell her goat for anything less than what she wanted.

Later, a young man bargained and offered her fifty thousand shillings which she accepted.

Sometime later, I sold my duck for fifteen thousand shillings only. We then moved through the crowd. Mother held me by the arm and we went to the place where the shoes were being sold. She helped me to make a choice. I was very happy to get my first pair of shoes in life. I then paid ten thousand shillings leaving me with change of five thousand.

Mother used some of her money to buy meat, plates, sugar, salt and tomatoes. She kept the remaining amount in her handbag. We then happily moved back home.

*I've been buried
Several times
My stem is cut,
Into small pieces,
And buried into shallow graves.*

*Two feet apart,
My body parts are placed,
To cover a length and a width of a field,
In a week's time, I rise from the dead.
With my delicate leaves bending for the wind to pass.*

*My stem growing straight into space.
My feet swell where I was buried.
Good news to them, the farmers,
As they dig out my feet*

Peel, cut and boil them.

With delicious sauce,

My feet are eaten.

With fried feet the young chat and then eat,

Chips, chips, chips

Delicious cassava chips!

Waya Primary School is a day school in the middle of Seseme village. In this school, lunch is given only to those pupils whose parents have paid lunch money.

One day, four boys and three girls studying in this school started their journey home. It was after the afternoon classes. None of their parents had paid the lunch money. These children were hungry and weak.

On their way, they saw a mango tree with some fruits on it. "I am hungry, why don't we visit that mango tree for fruits?" Bruno, one of the boys asked.

"Yeah," his friend Robert shouted excitedly. The rest including the girls supported the idea. All the seven of them approached the tree. They saw the ripe fruits. They started to throw some stones at them.

One of the girls, Kawudha, said, "I see a bee-hive on that big branch." "We shall not climb but just throw stones. Make sure you don't disturb the bees." Robert said. They started throwing stones at the ripe mangoes. Some mangoes fell on the ground. Unfortunately, quite a number of mangoes fell on the bee-hive. The boys and girls started collecting mangoes which had fallen on the ground. Suddenly a swarm of bees rushed out of the bee-hive. The bees attacked all of them. Each one of them was running towards the road. The bees followed them and stung everyone. They threw away all the ripe mangoes they had picked.

"Fall down and cover yourselves with grass!" shouted Mathew. All of them did so. After a few minutes the bees went back to their bee-hive.

The girls remained on the ground crying. The boys called the girls as they were removing the grass from their bodies. They continued their journey home. Their mouths, hands, eyes, noses, ears and other parts of their bodies were all swollen.

When they reached home, their parents saw the way each one of them looked. They were sorry for their children. One of the boys told the parents that they were very hungry since they did not get lunch at school.

The parents were concerned and after treating their children, they went with them to school and they talked to the head teacher.

SECTION B (Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each)

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

The act of moving from one place to another is known as travelling. When we travel, we see many new things and learn a lot.

When I was a young child, I used to travel a lot with my parents. On one of these travels, we used a bus. I realized that buses have scheduled destinations. In this case, one had to pay the fare at the bus company head office and book a particular seat. After paying, one is given a ticket confirming the payment, seat number and time of departure.

The day we were supposed to travel, we arrived at the bus company head office thirty minutes before departure time. The conductor checked all the passengers' tickets and confirmed our seats. He then gave us numbered tags to label our luggage. After labelling our luggage, they put it in the boot.

Once in the bus and in our respective seats, the driver started the engine and off we went. The driver drove at a steady speed. He observed all the road signs and respected other road users. He would reduce speed at humps and stop wherever he would find a zebra crossing to allow pedestrians cross the road.

I enjoyed this particular journey and liked the way everything was well organised.

SECTION B (50 marks)

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Every nation has symbols that identify it. A flag is just one of the symbols of a nation. On the Uganda flag, black stands for the black Africans who make the majority of Ugandans; yellow, for the abundant sunshine the country enjoys and red, symbolising brotherhood, which means, Ugandans are one and the same people despite the differences in skin colour, religion, tribe and so on.

The crested crane is a symbol of peace. Note that it always faces the flag pole (mast). It stands with one leg up. This is a sign that Uganda is moving forward in development.

Like the national flag, the national coat of arms is also a symbol of a nation. On Uganda's coat of arms, the kob represents the wildlife of Uganda and the crested crane, peace. The shield and spear represent Uganda's traditional weapons.

On the shield, the blue stripes are the many rivers and lakes of Uganda. The sun stands for the sunshine Uganda receives throughout the year. The shield itself, and the drum, symbolise the culture of the nation. The green colour at the bottom shows the abundant vegetation of Uganda with the Nile flowing through it.

Besides that, there is coffee and cotton which represent the traditional cash crops. Another symbol of Uganda as a nation is her three-stanza national anthem.

51. Read the passage below, and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Mzee Mugisha had lived in Buko Sub county, Masaka District for more than a decade. He had two children; a daughter and son.

Mzee Mugisha's son, Samuel Samwiri, left home after dropping out of Primary Six to look for work in Masaka town. Fortunately, he got a job in a very big hotel. His work was to wash crockery and utensils because he didn't have any certificate in catering. Samuel worked very hard and did his work well, and soon, the hotelier increased his salary.

One day at the hotel, Samuel found a chef baking cakes. After staring at the chef for a while, Samuel made up his mind to help him because he had got tired. Suddenly, the hotelier walked into the room with a customer's order and found Samuel busy baking. Surprised, the hotelier asked Samuel how he had learnt baking. He explained that he had learnt baking in Primary Six from his teacher of English. A few months later, Samuel was made a chef because he could do the work better than anyone else in the hotel.

SECTION B: (50 MARKS)

(Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each)

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

The Academic Interaction Day was held on 16th March, 2018. All parents and guardians of nursery to Primary Seven were expected to be at school at about seven o'clock in the morning. They had been given letters the previous week. Those who did not get them were also informed through radio television announcements. This was event is organised annually at Green Valley School.

On this day, all parents and guardians are expected to look at their children's class work and their results of Midterm One Examinations. Pupils' conduct was also discussed with the subject teachers. On this day, the father to Ayebale Cathy aka AC arrived very early. He went straight to his daughter's classroom and found a long queue of parents. He patiently waited in the queue until it was his turn to talk to Mr Gundi George, the Class Manager of Primary Seven Bright. Mr Annoyed Bitter then introduced himself. Mr Gundi George opened the class progress file. Unfortunately, Ayebale's name did not have any marks in all the four subjects for this set of examinations. She had missed sitting this examination because on arrival to school, she would hide in the toilets until each paper was done. There was the word "absent" in all the subject columns.

AC was then called. Her father asked her why she did not have marks. She had no answer. Mr Annoyed Bitter couldn't remember any day when his daughter did not come to school. He was very angry with her. After a long silence, she broke into tears and begged for forgiveness. She told her father and the teachers that she had lacked enough preparation for the exams; that's why she would hide inside the toilets.

All the parents and pupils were sad to hear such a thing. They all blamed her for wasting her father's money. As a punishment, Mr. Annoyed Bitter decided not to pay for the class educational tour to Soweto in South Africa.
