A SAD MONDAY MORNING

Uncle was going to work very early on Monday morning. On the way, he met a group of thieves. They asked him for money, but he refused.

The thieves hit him on the head with a stone. He fell down and they took his money, telephone and wallet. They ran away and left him on the ground. Kind people found him bleeding and rushed him to hospital.

He was put on a drip because he had lost a lot of blood. His wounds were dressed. We should always be careful on the road, especially early in the morning and late in the evening.
