Every living creature needs some rest. Workers at different levels get leave to relax and reflect on their achievements. Religious people also have special occasions where they rest and thank their creator for His enormous love.

As a school girl, I am always excited at the end of each of the three school terms. This is so because I am given a holiday off books. However, I do not just waste the holiday time. I usually plan my holidays very well. I list down all the activities to do and ask my friend Moreen to supplement. Since I spend my holidays upcountry, I enjoy tethering goats, cleaning the poultry house and cowshed. I also like weeding grandpa's orchard. Every evening, my grandmother tells us very interesting stories that make us laugh our hearts out.

Now that I am a candidate, I will surely miss the fun!

Listen to our cries dear comrade

And be caring to us and our children

Listen to our cries dear comrade
Take us to graze in the field
Take us for water at the river
And we shall get enough milk
For our calves and for your children.

Listen to our cries dear comrade
Treat us when we are sick
And vaccinate us against diseases
Put us in our byres
And we shall feel comfortable at night.

Listen to our cries dear comrade
Do not just whip us mercilessly
But protect us from the butchers
Who simply want to butcher us
To get beef and hides from us.

Dear Alex,

How are you my friend? For me I am very fine.

I am writing this letter to invite you to our school sports day which will take place on 15th July 2025. It will begin at eleven o'clock in the morning and end at four o'clock in the afternoon.

There will be very many races like relays, sack race, egg carrying and Ball Bean Bag (BBB) for nursery children. This is because we shall witness a very strong contest between parents and teachers in the one hundred metres by four.
