Your fasting ends in quarrelling and strife, and in striking each other with wicked fists. You cannot fast as you do today and expect your voice to be heard on high. Is not this the kind of fast I have chosen, is that what you call a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? "Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: To lose the chains of injustice and untie the codes of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? ITEM 2

Dante and his family travellers to the village for Christmas every year, they are welcomed with a lot of excitement from their family and friends. The following day, they slaughter a bull which they eat for the whole festive season, they prepare local porridge, invite their neighbours and share with the poor, they go to church prayers, they thank God bringing them that far. They do the same during other Christian celebrations such as Easter, baptism among others. This family has mastered the art of valuing Christian rituals and celebrations, it has grown richer because members respect God's work and he blesses them back. This has surprised the whole village who have also converted into Christianity are doing the same.

Tasks.

- a) Explain the Christian teaching about ritual and celebrations that can help no-converts to respect Christian rituals and celebrations.
- b) Relate the traditional African approaches about rituals and celebrations to those in the scenario above.
