

Term 1

Theme: Reading from the Qur'an

Topic 1/5: Surat Al-Fil (Chapter 105)

Learning Outcome: The learner develops understanding and appreciation for the content of the Surah, adopts and practices values advanced in this Surah and demonstrates life skills for maintaining security in society.

Meaning of Key term

- (i) Flights of birds: The movement of birds flying in the sky.
Example: A flock of birds flying together.
- (ii) Baked clay: Clay that has been hardened by fire or heat.
Example: Bricks made from baked clay.
- (iii) Invade: To enter a place by force to cause harm or take control.
Example: An army invading another land.
- (iv) Mischief: Bad or naughty behavior that causes trouble.
Example: A child breaking things on purpose.
- (V) Transgressor: A person who breaks rules or disobeys Allah's commands.
Example: Someone who steals or lies.
- (VI) Evil: Very bad or harmful actions that displease Allah.
Example: Cruelty, cheating, or corruption.

Exercise 1

1. What does "baked clay" mean?
Clay hardened by fire.
2. Who is a transgressor?
A person who breaks rules.
3. Give one example of evil.
Cheating.

Arabic (Surat Al-Fil)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِأَصْحَابِ الْفِيلِ
أَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ كَيْدَهُمْ فِي تَضْلِيلٍ
وَأَرْسَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ طَيْرًا أَبَابِيلَ
تَرْمِيهِمْ بِحِجَارَةٍ مِّن سِجِّيلٍ
فَجَعَلَهُمْ كَعَصْفٍ مَّأْكُولٍ

English Translation (Simple)

In the name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate:

Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the companions of the elephant?

Did He not make their plan go astray?

And He sent against them birds in flocks,

Striking them with stones of baked clay,

And He made them like eaten-up straw.

Easy Summary for Pupils

This Surah tells the story of Abraha's army with elephants that wanted to destroy the Ka'bah.

Allah protected His House by sending birds with stones, and the army was destroyed.

It shows Allah's power and protection.

Herd of Elephants

Lessons from Surat Al-Fil

- (i) Allah is All-Powerful: Allah destroyed Abraha's mighty army with small birds carrying stones.

This shows that Allah can use even the weakest creatures to defeat the strongest.
- (ii) Allah Protects His House (Ka'bah): The Ka'bah was saved from destruction, teaching Muslims that Allah guards His sacred places.
- (iii) Human Pride and Power Cannot Defeat Allah: Abraha came with elephants and a huge army, but he failed.

This shows that no matter how strong people are, they cannot overcome Allah's will.
- (iv) Trust in Allah: Muslims should always put their trust in Allah, because He protects and helps His servants.
- (v) Punishment for Evil Plans: Those who plan mischief and evil against Allah's commands will be punished.

Easy Summary for Pupils

- (i) Allah is powerful.
- (ii) Allah protects the Ka'bah.
- (iii) Human pride cannot defeat Allah.
- (iv) Trust Allah always.
- (v) Evil plans lead to punishment.

Exercise 2

- 1. Who destroyed Abraha's army?
Allah.
- 2. What lesson do we learn about Allah's power?
Allah can defeat even the strongest armies.
- 3. What happens to people who plan mischief against Allah?
They are punished.

Revision Question

- 1. (a) Give two contributions Muslim can make towards the spread of Islam in Uganda.
 - (i) Teaching the Qur'an – Opening madrasa schools to teach children how to read and understand the Qur'an.
 - (ii) Building mosques – Providing places of worship where people can learn about Islam.
 - (iii) Charity (Zakah and Sadaqah) – Helping the poor and needy so they see the kindness of Islam.
 - (iv) Good behavior – Showing honesty, kindness, and respect so others admire Islamic values.
 - (v) Preaching (Da'wah) – Explaining Islamic teachings to non-Muslims in a peaceful way.
- (b) State the meaning of each of the following terms as used in Islam
 - (i) Persecution: Treating someone badly or unfairly because of their religion or beliefs.

Example: Early Muslims in Makkah were persecuted by Quraysh.

- (ii) Perseverance: Continuing to have faith and patience even when facing difficulties.

Example: Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and his followers persevered during hardships.

2. “The good deed and the evil deed cannot be equal. Repel (the evil) with one which is better (i.e. All orders the faithful believers to be patient at the time of anger, and to excuse those who trat them badly) then verily he, between whom and you there was enmity, (will become) as though he was a close friend.” (Surah Fussilat 41:34)

- (a) Who said the above wors?

Allah

- (b) Give two reasons for responding to evil with good acts as Muslim.

(i) It shows patience and obedience to Allah – Muslims are commanded to control anger and respond kindly.

(ii) It changes enemies into friends – Good behavior can soften hearts and remove hatred.

- (c) State one thing that happens to Muslims who do good to their enemies.

(i) Forgive them

(ii) become friend

(iii) show them kindness

3. (a) Who is a martyr according to Islamic teaching?

A martyr (Shahid) is a Muslim who dies in the cause of Allah while defending Islam, protecting the community, or standing firm in faith.

- (b) Give any two positive results of the battles between Muslims and the Meccans.

(i) Strengthened the faith of Muslims: The battles made Muslims more united and firmer in their belief in Allah.

(ii) Spread of Islam: Victories encouraged more people to accept Islam and respect Muslims.

- (iii) Protection of the Muslim community: The battles helped Muslims defend themselves from enemies who wanted to destroy them.
- (iv) Trust in Allah increased: Muslims learned to rely on Allah's help in times of difficulty.
- (v) Respect and recognition: Other tribes began to respect Muslims because they saw Allah's support for them.

(c) What lesson can a Muslim learn from the wars by Prophet Muhammed (PBUH) in Madian?

- (i) Trust in Allah: Success comes from Allah's help, not just from human strength.
- (ii) Unity and Cooperation: Muslims must work together and support each other in times of difficulty.
- (iii) Patience and Perseverance: Hardships should be faced with courage and faith.
- (iv) Defending Islam Peacefully and Bravely: Muslims should protect their faith and community when challenged, but not act unjustly.
- (v) Obedience to the Prophet (PBUH): Following the Prophet's guidance leads to victory and blessings.

4. (a) What helped Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) to be successful when he was on earth?

- (i) Allah's guidance and protection.
- (ii) His honesty and truthfulness (he was called Al-Amin – the trustworthy).
- (iii) Patience and perseverance in difficulties.
- (iv) Support from his companions who helped spread Islam.
- (v) Good character and kindness which attracted people to Islam.

(b) Mention any three factors that lead people to successful life today

- (i) Hard work – putting effort in studies or jobs.
- (ii) Honesty – being truthful and trustworthy.
- (iii) Education – learning skills and knowledge.
- (iv) Patience and perseverance – not giving up when facing challenges.
- (v) Faith in Allah – trusting Allah in all matters.
- (vi) Helping others – kindness brings blessings.

Term 1

Theme: Tawhiid (Faith)

Topic 2/5: The Power of God

Learning Outcome: The learner develops awareness that “whatever happens to man is from God the Almighty and the Lord of creation” and applies this awareness in his daily life.

Meaning of Key term

- (i) Qadha: Means Allah’s decision or judgment about something that has already happened.
Example: If someone is born in a certain family, that is Allah’s Qadha.
- (ii) Qadar: Means Allah’s plan or measure for everything in the universe.
It shows that Allah knows what will happen before it happens.
- (iii) Divine Decree: Another word for Allah’s command or decision.
It is what Allah has written to happen in life.
- (iv) Predestination: Means everything is already known and planned by Allah before it happens.
Example: Allah already knows when each person will be born and when they will die.
- (v) Al-Hamdu Lillah (الحمد لله)
Means: “All praise is due to Allah.”
Muslims say it to thank Allah for His blessings.
Example: When you finish eating or succeed in something, you say Al-Hamdu Lillah.

(vi) Inna Lillahi wa Inna Ilaihi Raji'un (إِنَّا لِلّٰهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ)

Means: “Surely we belong to Allah, and to Him we shall return.”

Muslims say it when someone dies or when facing a loss, to remember that life belongs to Allah.

Easy Summary for Pupils

(i) Qadha = Allah’s decision that has already happened.

(ii) Qadar = Allah’s plan for everything.

(ii) Divine decree = Allah’s command or decision.

(iv) Predestination = Allah already knows and has planned everything.

(v) Al-Hamdu Lillah = Thanking Allah.

It covers the whole range of fortunes a learner may get e.g. good marks, passing examinations, being elected a perfect, accomplishing a given task successfully.

(vi) Inna Lillahi wa Inna Ilaihi Raji'un = We belong to Allah, and we return to Him.

It covers a whole range of accidents, and unfavourable incidents e.g. forgetting one’s book at home, failing a test, power going off, etc

Exercise 1

1. What does Qadha mean?

Allah’s decision that has already happened.

2. What does Qadar show us?

That Allah has planned everything.

3. What is predestination?

Allah already knows and has planned all events.

4. What do Muslims say to thank Allah?

Al-Hamdu Lillah.

5. What do Muslims say when someone dies?

Inna Lillahi wa Inna Ilaihi Raji'un.

The Power of God

Allah is all-powerful – He created the heavens, the earth, and everything in them.

Nothing is stronger than Allah, and He controls life, death, and all events.

His power is shown in miracles, nature, and the way He protects His believers.

God's power and Daily Life

- (i) Muslims trust Allah in their daily activities (studies, work, health).
- (ii) Muslims should ask help from Allah when facing problems.
- (iii) Believing in Allah's power helps Muslims stay patient, kind, and hopeful.

Divine Decree and Predestination

Divine Decree: Allah's command or decision about what will happen.

Predestination (Qadar): Allah has already planned and knows everything before it happens.

Example: Allah knows when someone will be born, what they will do, and when they will die.

Easy Summary for Pupils

Allah is all-powerful.

His power guides Muslims in daily life.

Divine decree = Allah's decision.

Predestination = Allah's plan for everything.

Exercise 2

1. Who controls everything in the world?
Allah.
2. What is divine decree?
Allah's command or decision.
3. What is predestination?
Allah's plan for everything before it happens.

The relevance of belief in divine decree (Qadha) and predestination (Qadar) to daily life

- (i) Trust in Allah: Muslims know that whatever happens is part of Allah's plan.
This helps them stay calm in good and bad times.
- (ii) Patience in Difficulties: When facing problems, Muslims remember that Allah has already planned everything.
This gives them strength to persevere.
- (iii) Avoiding Pride: Success is not only from personal effort but also from Allah's decree.
This teaches humility and gratitude.
- (iv) Encouragement to Work Hard: Even though Allah has planned everything, Muslims must still try their best in studies, work, and worship.
Effort and trust in Allah go together.
- (v) Hope and Comfort: Belief in predestination helps Muslims not lose hope, because they know Allah's plan is always for the best.

Exercise 3

- 1. What helps Muslims stay calm in good and bad times?
Belief in Allah's plan (divine decree).
- 2. Why should Muslims avoid pride?
Because success comes from Allah's decree, not only from their effort.
- 3. How does belief in predestination encourage Muslims?
It gives them hope and comfort in life.

Revision Questions

- 1. According to Islam, who is the controller of all authority?
Allah
He rules over the heavens, the earth, and everything in them.
- 2. State any miracles Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) performed.
 - (i) The Qur'an – His greatest miracle, a book of guidance that no one can imitate.
 - (ii) Isra and Mi'raj – The night journey and ascension to the heavens.

- (iii) Protection during migration – Allah saved him when the Meccans plotted to kill him.
 - (iv) Dust at the Battle of Badr – He threw dust that blinded the enemies, helping Muslims win.
3. What helped Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) to be accepted by People?
- (i) His honesty and truthfulness (he was called Al-Amin, the trustworthy).
 - (ii) His kindness and good character.
 - (iii) His patience and perseverance in difficulties.
 - (iv) His fairness and justice in dealing with people.
 - (v) Allah's guidance and protection.

Term 1

Theme: Fiqh (Practice)

Topic 3/5: Difference between Zakah and Sadaqah

Learning Outcome: The learner understands and appreciates the significance of Sadaqah and demonstrates values and benefits of sharing and generosity.

Meaning of key term

(i) Zakah (زكاة)

A compulsory charity that every Muslim must give if they have enough wealth.

It is one of the Five Pillars of Islam.

Purpose: To help the poor, needy, and support the community.

(ii) Sadaqah (صدقة)

Voluntary charity given by Muslims at any time.

It can be money, food, clothes, or even a kind action (like a smile).

Purpose: To earn Allah's reward and show kindness.

(iii) Charity

General word for helping others with what you have.

In Islam, charity includes both Zakah (compulsory) and Sadaqah (voluntary).

Exercise 1

1. Which type of charity is a pillar of Islam?

Zakah.

3. What is Sadaqah?

Voluntary charity given anytime.

3. Give one example of charity.

Giving food to the poor.

Zakah

Significance of Zakah

- (i) One of the Five Pillars of Islam – It is compulsory for Muslims who have enough wealth.
- (ii) Purifies wealth – Giving Zakah cleanses a Muslim's money and heart from greed.
- (iii) Helps the poor and needy – It supports those who cannot provide for themselves.
- (iv) Builds unity – It strengthens the bond between rich and poor in the community.

Significance of Sadaqah

- (i) Voluntary charity – Muslims can give it anytime, even a smile or kind word counts.
- (ii) Brings blessings – Allah rewards those who give Sadaqah.
- (iii) Shows kindness – It teaches Muslims to care for others.
- (iv) Protects from harm – Sadaqah is believed to bring safety and peace to the giver.

Exercise 2

1. Why is Zakah important in Islam?

Because it is a pillar of Islam and helps the poor.

2. What is special about Sadaqah?
It is voluntary and can be given anytime.
3. How do both Zakah and Sadaqah help the community?
They support the needy and bring unity among Muslims.

Revision Questions

1. Give the difference between Zakah and Sadaqah.
Zakah: Compulsory charity, given once a year if a Muslim has enough wealth. It is one of the Five Pillars of Islam.
Sadaqah: Voluntary charity, given anytime, in any form (money, food, clothes, or even a smile).
2. Defines Sadaqah.
Sadaqah means voluntary charity given by Muslims to help others and earn Allah's reward.
It is not compulsory, but it shows kindness and generosity.
3. Explains the relevance of Sadaqah to daily life.
 - (i) Helps the poor and needy – supports those who cannot provide for themselves.
 - (ii) Brings blessings and reward – Allah loves those who give charity.
 - (iii) Encourages kindness – teaches Muslims to care for others.
 - (iv) Strengthens community bonds – makes people feel loved and supported.
 - (v) Protects from harm – Muslims believe Sadaqah brings peace and safety.

Term 1

Theme: Hadith (Traditions of the Prophet (PBUH))

Topic 4/5: Road Usage and Enjoining others to do Good (Counselling)

Learning Outcome: The learner

- (i) understands and appreciates the message contained in the Hadith, adopts rules for road usage and demonstrates ability to interact with other road users.
- (ii) develops the desire to do good and shares useful information and urges other Muslims to do the same.

Meaning of key term

- (i) Road Usage: Means using the road in the right way.
Example: Walking carefully, following traffic rules, and respecting other road users.
- (ii) Enjoining: Means encouraging or advising others to do good.
Example: Telling a friend to pray or to be kind.
- (iii) Sharing Information: Means giving others useful knowledge or news.
Example: Teaching classmates what you learned in Qur'an class.
- (iv) Counselling: Means guiding or advising someone when they have a problem.
Example: Helping a friend who is sad by giving them good advice.

Exercise 1

1. What does road usage mean?
Using the road properly and safely.
2. What does enjoining mean?
Advising others to do good.
3. Give one example of sharing information.
Teaching classmates what you learned.
4. What is counselling?
Giving advice to someone with a problem.

Hadith about Road Usage and Enjoining Good

The Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: “Avoid sitting on the roads.” The companions asked: “O Messenger of Allah, we have no other place to sit and talk.” He replied: “If you must sit, then give the road its rights: lower your gaze, do not harm anyone, return greetings, enjoin good, and forbid evil.”

Counselling session

Meaning of the Hadith

The Hadith teaches Muslims to use roads properly and not disturb others.

It shows that Muslims must respect others, greet them kindly, and encourage good behavior.

Roads are public places, so they must be used with care and respect.

Relevance to Daily Life

- (i) Respecting road usage: Walk carefully, avoid blocking paths, and greet people politely.
- (ii) Enjoining good: Encourage friends to pray, be kind, and avoid bad habits.

- (iii) Community harmony: Following this Hadith makes roads safe and keeps relationships peaceful.

Easy Summary for Pupils

- (i) Hadith: Respect the road and enjoin good.
- (ii) Meaning: Roads belong to everyone, so use them kindly.
- (iii) Daily life: Walk safely, greet others, and encourage good behavior.

Exercise 2

1. What did the Prophet (PBUH) say about sitting on roads?
Avoid sitting on roads, but if you do, give the road its rights.
2. What does “enjoining good” mean?
Advising others to do good.
3. How can pupils apply this Hadith in daily life?
By walking safely, greeting others, and encouraging kindness.

Term 1

Theme: History of Islam

Topic 5/5: Introduction of Islam in Uganda

Learning Outcome: The learner develops appreciation for the circumstances under which Islam was introduced in Uganda.

Meaning of key term

- (i) Settlement: A place where people live together, like a village or town.
- (ii) Migration: Moving from one place to another to live there.
Example: Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) migrated from Mecca to Madinah.
- (iii) Coast: The land near the sea or ocean.
- (iv) Circumstances: The conditions or situations people face in life.
Example: Studying in difficult circumstances means learning even when things are hard.
- (v) Century: A period of 100 years.
- (vi) Courtier: A person who works in a king's or ruler's palace.
- (vii) Kabaka: The traditional king of Buganda (a kingdom in Uganda).
- (vii) Arab: A person from the Arab world (countries like Saudi Arabia, Egypt, etc.).

Exercise 1

1. What is a settlement?
A place where people live.
2. What does migration mean?
Moving from one place to another.
3. Who is the Kabaka?
The king of Buganda.

Exercise 2

Complete the crossword puzzle below

Across	Down
1. land near the sea.	2. place people live
3. moving to a new place	4. situation in life
5. 100 years	6. person from Arab countries.
7. king of Buganda.	8. worker in a king's palace.

		1			2
	4		6				8
3
			7
5

Kabaka of Buganda

The Coming of the Arabs

Arabs came to East Africa many centuries ago.

They arrived mainly through the coast of the Indian Ocean (like Mombasa and Zanzibar).

They came for trade (selling goods like clothes, beads, and spices) and also to spread Islam.

Introduction of Islam in Uganda during the 19th Century

In the 19th Century, Arab traders moved inland from the East African coast.

They reached Buganda Kingdom and other parts of Uganda.

They introduced Islam by teaching the Qur'an and showing Muslims how to pray.

The Kabaka of Buganda allowed Arabs to teach Islam at his court.

Circumstances of Introducing Islam in Uganda

Around the 1840s, Arab trader Ahmed bin Ibrahim arrived in Buganda.

He was warmly received by Kabaka Suuna II, who allowed him to trade and interact with the royal court.

Islam spread peacefully through teaching, trade, and friendship.

The presence of Arabs at the royal palace made Islam respected and accepted.

Exercise 1

1. Who brought Islam to Uganda?
Arab traders.
2. In which century was Islam introduced in Uganda?
The 19th Century.
3. What circumstances helped Islam spread in Uganda?
Trade, friendship, and the Kabaka's support.

Relevance of Islam in Uganda to Daily Life

- (i) Worship and Prayer: Muslims pray five times a day, which helps them stay close to Allah.
- (ii) Charity and Helping Others: Islam teaches giving Zakah and Sadaqah, which supports the poor and needy in the community.
- (iii) Good Behavior: Muslims are taught honesty, kindness, and respect, which guide daily actions.
- (iv) Unity and Brotherhood: Islam encourages Muslims to live peacefully and support one another, strengthening community ties.
- (v) Education and Learning: The Qur'an and Islamic teachings encourage seeking knowledge, which benefits schools and families.
- (vi) Respect for Leaders and Rules: Islam teaches obedience to rightful authority, which helps maintain peace and order in society.

Exercise 2

1. How does Islam help the poor in Uganda?
Through Zakah and Sadaqah (charity).

2. What does Islam teach about behavior?
To be honest, kind, and respectful.
3. How does Islam encourage unity?
By teaching Muslims to live peacefully and support one another.

Revision Questions

1. Name the Kabaka of Buganda who welcomed the first Arab trader to Uganda.
Kabaka Suuna II
2. Mention contributions in Islam to the development of Uganda
Islam contributed to Uganda by
 - (i) teaching literacy,
 - (ii) promoting fairness,
 - (iii) encouraging charity,
 - (iv) expanding trade,
 - (v) Swahili language.

Term 2

Theme: Reading from the Qur'an

Topic 1/5: Unity of God Verses 163 – 164 and 255 – 258 of Surat Al-Baqarah

Learning Outcome: The learner develops understanding and appreciation for the message contained in the verses, adopts values advanced therein, and demonstrates ability and readiness to adhere to Allah's ordinances.

Meaning of Key terms

- (i) Nature: Everything created by Allah in the world, like trees, animals, rivers, and mountains.
- (ii) Natural Laws: Rules made by Allah that control how the world works.
Example: The sun rises in the morning and sets in the evening.
- (iii) Ordinance: A command or rule given by Allah or by leaders to guide people.
Example: Allah's ordinance is for Muslims to pray five times a day.
- (iv) Ayat Al-Kursi (آية الكرسي): A verse from the Qur'an (Surah Al-Baqarah, verse 255).
It speaks about Allah's power, knowledge, and authority over everything.
Muslims recite it for protection and blessings.

Exercise 1

1. What is nature?
Allah's creation like trees and rivers.
2. What are natural laws?
Rules made by Allah that control the world.
3. What is Ayat Al-Kursi about?
Allah's power, knowledge, and authority.

Surah Al-Baqara Verses 163–164

وَاللَّهُكُمْ إِلَهٌ وَحِيدٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ
... إِنَّ فِي خَلْقِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافِ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ

English (short meaning):

“Your God is One God. There is no god but Him, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate. Surely, in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the alternation of night and day, are signs for people who think.”

Meaning of the Selected Verses

- (i) Allah is One God.
- (ii) He is Merciful and Compassionate.
- (iii) His signs are seen in nature: the sky, earth, night, and day.
- (iv) These verses remind Muslims to reflect on Allah’s power and creation.
- (v) Recited in lessons, prayers, and reflection on Allah’s signs.

Relevance of the Verses to Daily Life

Belief in One God: Muslims worship only Allah.

Gratitude: Observing nature helps Muslims thank Allah for His blessings.

Reflection: Encourages thinking about Allah’s greatness in everyday life.

Respect for Creation: Teaches care for the environment and living things.

Exercise 2

- 1. What do verses 163–164 say about Allah?
That He is One God.
- 2. Where can we see Allah’s signs?
In the heavens, earth, night, and day.
- 3. How are these verses relevant to daily life?
They help Muslims worship Allah, be grateful, and respect His creation.
- 4. When do Muslims recite Ayat Al-Kursi?
After prayers, before sleep, and for protection.

Arabic (Ayat Al-Kursi – verse 255):

... اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ لَا تَأْخُذُهُ سِنَّةٌ وَلَا نَوْمٌ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ

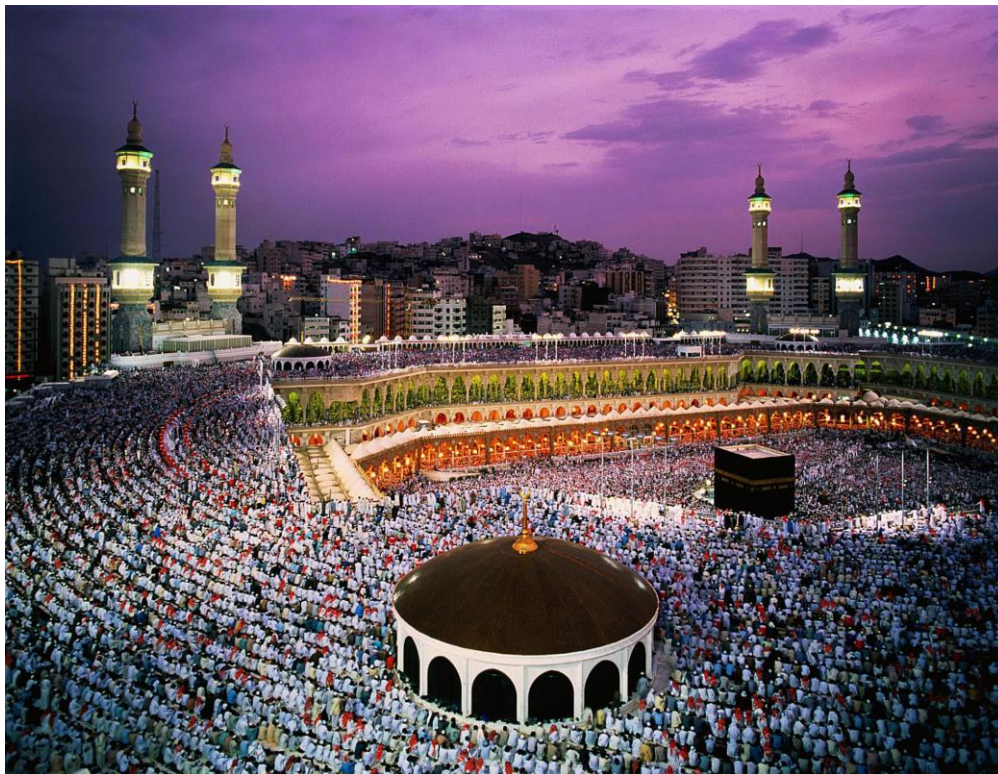

English (Ayat Al-Kursi – verse 255):

“Allah! There is no god but Him, the Ever-Living, the Sustainer of all. Neither slumber nor sleep overtakes Him. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth...”

(Verses 256–258 continue to explain that there is no compulsion in religion, Allah is the protector of believers, and He gives life and death as signs of His power.)

Meaning of the Selected Verses

- (i) Allah is One God – He is alive and sustains everything.
- (ii) Allah never sleeps – He is always watching over creation.
- (iii) Allah owns everything – in the heavens and the earth.
- (iv) No compulsion in religion – people should accept Islam freely.
- (v) Allah protects believers – He gives life, death, and guidance.

Mecca

Relevance of the Verses to Daily Life

- (i) Trust in Allah's protection: Muslims feel safe knowing Allah never sleeps.
- (ii) Gratitude: Recognizing Allah's power encourages thankfulness.
- (iii) Freedom of belief: Islam teaches respect for choice in religion.
- (iv) Guidance in life: These verses remind Muslims to follow Allah's wisdom.
- (v) Comfort in challenges: Believers know Allah controls life and death, so they remain patient.
- (vi) Recited after prayers, before sleep, and for protection.

Exercise 3

- (i) What does Ayat Al-Kursi say about Allah?
That He is One God, alive, and sustains everything.
- (ii) Why do Muslims feel safe after reciting Ayat Al-Kursi?
Because Allah never sleeps and always protects them.
- 3. How are these verses relevant to daily life?
They help Muslims trust Allah, be grateful, and respect freedom of belief.
- 4. Why are verses 163–164 recited?
To remind Muslims of Allah's Oneness and His signs in creation.

Term 2

Theme: Tawhiid (Faith)

Topic 2/5: Kufr and Shirik

Learning Outcome: The learner becomes a model person who is morally upright and obeys God's commands.

Kufr and Shirik

Kufr: Refusing to believe in Allah or denying His message.

Shirik: Associating partners with Allah, or worshipping something/someone besides Him.

Origin of Shirik

Shirik began when people stopped worshipping Allah alone.

They started worshipping idols, stars, or leaders instead of Allah.

Types of Shirik

Major Shirik – Worshipping other gods or idols besides Allah.

Minor Shirik – Doing actions to show off instead of pleasing Allah (like praying to impress people).

Major Shirik

- (i) Believing in more than one god.
- (ii) Worshipping idols, spirits, or humans.
- (iii) This is the greatest sin in Islam.

Minor Shirik

- (i) Pretending to worship Allah but actually seeking praise from people.
- (ii) Saying words that suggest dependence on other powers instead of Allah.

Shirk Acts in Daily Life

- (i) Worshipping idols or charms.
- (ii) Believing that someone other than Allah controls life and death.
- (iii) Showing off in worship (praying or giving charity just to be praised).
- (iii) Depending on superstitions instead of trusting Allah.

Easy Summary for Pupils

Kufr = denying Allah.

Shirk = associating partners with Allah.

Major Shirk = worshipping idols.

Minor Shirk = showing off in worship.

Daily life: Muslims must worship Allah alone and avoid superstitions.

True prayer rewards

Important to note

Kufr is rejection of what God has revealed. If a person fails to observe one of God's commandments because of temptation or negligence rather than rejection, such is not a Kafir but a sinner. If one fails to observe a commandment because of rejection, objection to it or arrogance, then such a person is a Kafir.

Shirk is an association of God with his creatures or a belief in false gods. It is the gravest of all sins. The learner is expected to, know the meaning of Kufr, Shirk, explain the difference between Kufr and Shirk as well as explain types of Shirk.

Exercise

1. What is Kufr?
Denying Allah or His message.
2. What is Shirk?
Associating partners with Allah.
3. Give one example of Major Shirk.
Worshipping idols.
4. Give one example of Minor Shirk.
Showing off in prayer.

Term 2

Theme: Fiqh (Practice)

Topic 3/5: Recipients of Zakah

Learning Outcome: The learner;

- develops appreciation for Islam's concern for the disadvantaged and the needy and its determination to solve their economic problems and promote their welfare.
- applies the knowledge acquired to help the needy in society.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Zakah (Akaḥ): Compulsory charity in Islam.
Muslims give part of their wealth to help the poor and needy.
- (ii) Needy: People who do not have enough to meet their basic needs like food, clothes, or shelter.
- (iii) Poor: People who have very little or no wealth at all.
- (iv) Wayfarer: A traveler who is far from home and in need of help.
- (v) Heavily Debted: A person who owes a lot of money and cannot pay it back.
- (vi) Cause of God (Fi Sabilillah): Spending wealth to support Allah's work, such as building mosques, spreading Islam, or helping in good causes.
- (vii) Those Whose Hearts Should Be Reconciled: People who are new to Islam or those who need encouragement to strengthen their faith.

Easy Summary for Pupils

Zakah = compulsory charity.

Needy & Poor = people who need help.

Wayfarer = traveler in need.

Heavily Debted = person who owes money.

Cause of God = spending for Allah's work.

Reconciled hearts = helping new Muslims or those needing support.

Exercise 1

1. Who are the needy?
People who lack basic needs.
2. What is a wayfarer?
A traveler who needs help.
3. What does “Cause of God” mean?
Spending wealth for Allah’s work.

Let us share

8 Categories of Zakah Recipients

According to the Qur'an (Surah At-Tawbah 9:60), Zakah is given to:

- (i) The Poor – those with no wealth at all.
- (ii) The Needy – those who have little but not enough for their needs.

- (iii) Zakah Collectors – people appointed to collect and distribute Zakah.
- (iv) Those Whose Hearts Should Be Reconciled – new Muslims or those needing encouragement in faith.
- (v) Captives/Slaves – to help free them.
- (vi) Debtors – those who owe money and cannot pay back.
- (vii) In the Cause of Allah (Fi Sabilillah) – for activities that support Islam, like building mosques or spreading knowledge.
- (viii) Wayfarer (Traveler) – a traveler in need, far from home.

Justification for These Categories

- (i) Fairness: Zakah ensures wealth is shared with those who need it most.
- (ii) Support: Each category represents people who face hardship.
- (iii) Community Care: It strengthens unity by helping different groups.
- (iv) Obedience: Muslims follow Allah's command by giving Zakah to these groups.

Relevance of the Topic to Daily Life

- (i) Helps the poor and needy: Zakah provides food, shelter, and clothing.
- (ii) Encourages kindness: Muslims learn to care for others.
- (iii) Promotes justice: Wealth is shared fairly, reducing inequality.
- (iv) Strengthens community: Everyone feels supported and valued.
- (v) Obedience to Allah: Giving Zakah keeps Muslims close to their faith.

Exercise 2

1. How many categories of Zakah recipients are there?
Eight.
3. Who are the needy?
People who have little but not enough for their needs.
3. Why is Zakah important in daily life?
It helps the poor, promotes kindness, and strengthens community.

Revision Questions

1. State any one difference between zakah and sadaqah in the Islamic faith.

Zakah	Sadaqah
compulsory charity	voluntary charity
given once a year	given anytime

2. Mention any one Hadith that teaches Muslims to show the act of kindness to others.

The Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: “The merciful are shown mercy by the Most Merciful. Be merciful to those on the earth, and the One above the heavens will be merciful to you.” (Reported in Abu Dawud and Tirmidhi)

3. State any one way in which a Muslim child can care for the fellow pupils.

- (i) Sharing: Share food, books, or pencils with classmates who don't have.
- (ii) Helping: Assist friends with schoolwork or help them when they fall down.
- (iii) Kind Words: Speak politely, greet others with Salaam, and avoid hurtful words.
- (iv) Respect: Respect teachers and classmates, listen when others are speaking.
- (v) Encouragement: Motivate friends to do good things like studying hard or praying.
- (vi) Protecting: Stand up for classmates who are being teased or bullied.
- (vii) Caring for the Sick: Visit or check on classmates who are unwell, and pray for them.

4. (a) Give the meaning of the following pillars in Islam.

- (i) Zakah: is compulsory charity in Islam.
- (ii) Hijjah: is the pilgrimage to Makkah.

- (b) Write two conditions that enable a Muslim to observe Hijjah.

- (i) Being a Muslim – Only Muslims can perform Hajj.
- (ii) Being an adult – Must have reached maturity.
- (iii) Sound mind – Must be mentally able to understand the rituals.
- (iv) Health – Must be physically fit to travel and perform the rites.

- (v) Financial ability – Must have enough money for travel, food, and accommodation.
 - (vi) Safety – The journey must be safe and possible.
 - (vii) Permission for women – Women should be accompanied by a mahram (close male relative).
5. Mention any one way in which a Muslim can improve the lives of people suffering in their community.
- (i) Giving Zakah and Sadaqah: Share wealth with the poor, needy, and those in debt. This provides food, clothes, and shelter.
 - (ii) Visiting the Sick: Show care by visiting, praying for them, and offering support.
 - (iii) Sharing Knowledge: Teach others useful skills or Qur'an lessons to improve their lives.
 - (iv) Providing Encouragement: Comfort those who are sad or struggling with kind words.
 - (v) Helping in Daily Needs: Assist neighbors with chores, fetch water, or help carry heavy loads.
 - (vi) Promoting Peace and Unity: Avoid quarrels, encourage forgiveness, and live peacefully with others.
 - (vii) Protecting the Environment: Keep the community clean, plant trees, and avoid wasting resources.
6. Give one benefit of giving Zakat.
- (i) Helps the Poor and Needy: Provides food, clothes, and shelter for those who cannot afford them.
 - (ii) Purifies Wealth: Zakah cleanses a Muslim's wealth, making it blessed and lawful.
 - (iii) Obedience to Allah: It is one of the Five Pillars of Islam, so giving Zakah shows obedience.
 - (iv) Promotes Kindness and Sharing: Encourages Muslims to care for others and not be selfish.

- (v) Reduces Poverty: Distributes wealth fairly, so fewer people suffer in the community.
 - (vi) Strengthens Unity: Builds love and cooperation among Muslims when they help each other.
 - (vii) Earns Allah's Reward: Giving Zakah brings blessings in this life and reward in the Hereafter.
7. Why do Muslims visit Mecca every year?
- (i) Obedience to Allah: Hajj is a command from Allah for every Muslim who is able.
 - (ii) Unity of Muslims: Millions of Muslims from all over the world gather together, showing equality and brotherhood.
 - (iii) Spiritual Cleansing: Hajj washes away sins and renews faith.
 - (iv) Following Prophet Ibrahim (Abraham): Muslims remember the sacrifice and obedience of Prophet Ibrahim and his family.
 - (v) Strengthening Faith: The rituals of Hajj remind Muslims of Allah's greatness and increase their devotion.
8. Name any one group of people in your Muslim community who need special care.
- (i) The Poor: Those who do not have enough food, clothes, or shelter.
 - (ii) The Needy: People who have something but not enough to meet their daily needs.
 - (iii) The Sick: Those who are unwell and need visits, prayers, and support.
 - (iv) Orphans: Children without parents who need love, guidance, and help.
 - (v) The Elderly: Old people who may be weak and need respect, care, and assistance.
 - (vi) Travelers (Wayfarers): People far from home who may need food, shelter, or guidance.
 - (vii) Those in Debt: People who owe money and cannot pay it back.
9. (a) Which pillar of Islam brings the rich and the poor together?
- Zakah
- (b) Give the two types of the pillar you named in (a) above.

- (i) Zakah on Wealth – given from savings, business, or property.
 - (ii) Zakah on Crops and Animals – given from harvests or livestock.
 - (iii) Zakat al-Fitr – given at the end of Ramadan before Eid prayer, usually food or money for the poor.
- (c) What is the importance of the pillar you have mentioned in (a) above?
- (i) Helps the poor and needy by providing food, clothes, and shelter.
 - (ii) Purifies wealth and makes it blessed.
 - (iii) Shows obedience to Allah since it is one of the Five Pillars.
 - (iv) Promotes kindness and sharing among Muslims.
 - (v) Strengthens unity in the community by reducing poverty and inequality.
 - (vi) Earns reward from Allah in this life and the Hereafter.
10. Give one way in which Moslems can show love to the people they live with.
- (i) Greeting with Salaam: Saying “Assalamu Alaikum” (peace be upon you) spreads peace and love.
 - (ii) Helping in Daily Needs: Assisting family, neighbors, and classmates with chores or tasks.
 - (iii) Sharing: Offering food, clothes, or school items to those who need them.
 - (iv) Speaking Kindly: Using polite words, avoiding harsh speech, and showing respect.
 - (v) Visiting the Sick: Checking on those who are unwell, praying for them, and offering comfort.
 - (vi) Showing Respect: Respecting parents, elders, teachers, and neighbors.
 - (vi) Forgiving Others: Letting go of anger and forgiving mistakes to keep peace.
 - (vii) Praying for Others: Asking Allah to bless and protect the people arou

Term 2

Theme: Fiqh (Practice)

Topic 4/5: Hygiene

Learning Outcome: The learner develops appreciation for Islamic teachings on hygiene and demonstrates good hygienic practices in daily life.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Hygiene: Keeping yourself and your surroundings clean to stay healthy.
- (ii) Faith: Believing in Allah and following His teachings.
- (iii) Cleanliness: Being free from dirt in body, clothes, and environment.
- (iv) Personal Hygiene: Caring for your own body, such as bathing, brushing teeth, cutting nails, and wearing clean clothes.
- (v) Public Hygiene: Caring for the community and environment, such as not littering, keeping toilets clean, and protecting water sources.

Exercise 1

1. What is hygiene?
Keeping yourself and your surroundings clean.
2. Give one example of personal hygiene.
 - (i) Bathing regularly.
 - (ii) Washing hands before and after eating.
 - (iii) Brushing teeth (using miswak or toothbrush).
 - (iv) Wearing clean clothes.
 - (v) Cutting nails and keeping hair tidy.
3. Give one example of public hygiene.
 - (i) Not littering in the streets.
 - (ii) Keeping the environment clean.

- (iii) Not littering in streets, schools, or mosques.
- (iv) Using toilets properly and washing hands.
- (v) Helping to keep water sources clean.
- (vi) Planting trees and caring for nature.

Hadith on Hygiene

The Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: “Cleanliness is half of faith.” (Sahih Muslim)

Meaning of the Hadith

- (i) Being clean is part of being a good Muslim.
- (ii) Allah loves those who keep themselves and their surroundings pure.
- (iii) Cleanliness shows respect for Allah, for yourself, and for others.

Different Forms of Hygiene

- (i) Personal Hygiene: Bathing, brushing teeth, cutting nails, wearing clean clothes.
- (ii) Public Hygiene: Keeping the environment clean, not littering, using toilets properly, protecting water sources.
- (iii) Spiritual Hygiene: Performing ablution (wudu) before prayers, keeping the heart pure from bad thoughts.

| Items for personal hygiene

- (i) Causes sickness and diseases.
- (ii) Makes people uncomfortable around you.
- (iii) Shows lack of respect for yourself and others.
- (iv) Weakens faith because Islam teaches cleanliness.

Materials Used in Personal Hygiene

- (i) Water (for bathing, wudu, washing hands).
- (ii) Soap.
- (iii) Toothbrush or miswak.
- (iv) Nail cutter.
- (v) Clean clothes.

Materials Used in Public Hygiene

- (i) Brooms and mops (for cleaning).
- (ii) Dustbins (for collecting litter).
- (iii) Buckets and disinfectants.
- (iv) Gloves and protective wear.
- (v) Trees and plants (to keep the environment fresh).

Exercise 2

1. What did the Prophet say about cleanliness?
Cleanliness is half of faith.
2. Name one form of hygiene.
Personal hygiene.
3. Give one effect of poor hygiene.
It causes sickness.
4. Mention one material used in public hygiene.
Broom.

School Requirements for Personal Hygiene

- (i) Toilet Paper – for keeping clean after using the toilet.
- (ii) Sanitary Towels – for girls to use during menstruation.
- (iii) Soap – for washing hands and body.
- (iv) Water – for drinking, washing, and cleaning.
- (v) Hand Towels – for drying hands after washing.
- (vi) Toothbrush and Toothpaste – for keeping teeth clean.
- (vii) Nail Cutter – for trimming nails.
- (vii) Clean Clothes and Uniforms – for wearing daily.
- (ix) Dustbins – for collecting litter and keeping the school clean.
- (x) Brooms and Mops – for sweeping and cleaning classrooms.

Exercise 3

1. Why is toilet paper important in school?
To keep clean after using the toilet.
2. What do girls use during menstruation?
Sanitary towels.
3. Name one item used to keep classrooms clean.
Broom.

Hygiene in Islamic Rituals

- (i) Removing Shoes in the Mosque
Muslims take off their shoes before entering the mosque.
This keeps the mosque clean and shows respect for the holy place.
- (ii) Ablution (Wudu)
Muslims wash parts of their body (hands, face, arms, feet) before prayers.
This is done five times a day to stay pure and clean when worshipping Allah.
- (iii) Ghusl (Ritual Bathing)

Muslims perform a full body wash (ghusl) after certain occasions, such as after Friday prayers, before Eid, or after impurity.

This ensures complete cleanliness before worship.

Meaning Behind These Practices

- (i) Cleanliness is part of faith.
- (ii) It shows respect for Allah and the places of worship.
- (iii) It keeps Muslims healthy and pure in body and soul.

Exercise 4

1. Why do Muslims remove shoes before entering the mosque?
To keep the mosque clean.
2. What is ablution (wudu)?
Washing parts of the body before prayers.
3. What is ghusl?
A full body wash for complete cleanliness.

Revision Questions

1. State any one way Moslems prepare for prayers.

- (i) Cleanliness: Muslims make sure their body, clothes, and place of prayer are clean.
- (ii) Ablution (Wudu): They wash certain parts of the body: hands, mouth, nose, face, arms, head, ears, and feet.
This is done to be pure before standing in front of Allah.
- (iii) Proper Dress: Muslims wear clean and modest clothes.
Boys cover from navel to knees, and girls cover their whole body except face and hands.
- (iv) Facing the Qiblah: Muslims face the direction of the Kaaba in Makkah when praying.
- (v) Intention (Niyyah): They make a sincere intention in their heart to pray only for Allah.
- (vi) Going to the Mosque (if possible): Men are encouraged to pray in the mosque with others, while women may pray at home.

Term 2

Theme: Fiqh (Practice)

Topic 5/5: Spread of Islam Outside Buganda

Learning Outcome: The learner develops appreciation for Islamic teachings on hygiene and demonstrates good hygienic practices in daily life.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Colonial Policy: The rules and plans made by colonial rulers to control the people and resources of the land they ruled.
Example: Forcing people to grow cash crops instead of food crops.
- (ii) Spread: The way something moves or is shared from one place to another.
Example: Colonial ideas and systems spread from Europe to Africa.
- (iii) Impact: The effect or result something has on people or society.
Example: Colonial rule had an impact on education, culture, and the economy.

Exercise 1

- 1. What is colonial policy?
Rules made by colonial rulers to control people and resources.
- 2. What does spread mean?
How something moves or is shared.
- 3. What is impact?
The effect or result of something.

Gaddafi mosque Kampala

Spread of Islam Outside Buganda

- (i) Islam first came to Buganda through Arab traders.
- (ii) From Buganda, it spread to other parts of Uganda such as Busoga, Ankole, and Toro via Buganda missionaries and freed slaves.
- (iii) In Acholi, Islam came from Sudanese traders.
- (iv) Muslim teachers and traders carried the faith to new areas.
- (v) Intermarriages also helped Islam spread to different communities.

Colonial Policy Towards Islam

Colonial rulers (the British) favored Christianity more than Islam.

They gave more support to Christian schools and churches.

Muslims were often left out of government jobs and leadership positions.

This made Islam grow more slowly compared to Christianity during colonial times.

Impact of Islam on Ugandan Culture

- (i) Education – Muslims built schools and taught Arabic and Qur'an.
- (ii) Dress – Many Ugandans adopted modest dressing styles, like veils and long clothes.
- (iii) Language – Arabic words entered local languages.
- (iv) Food – Muslims introduced halal practices and new cooking styles.
- (v) Social Life – Islam encouraged unity, respect, and care for the poor through Zakah.
- (vi) Religious Festivals – Eid celebrations became part of Ugandan culture.

Revision Questions

1. How did Islam spread outside Buganda?
Through traders, teachers, and intermarriages.
2. What was colonial policy towards Islam?
Colonial rulers favored Christianity more than Islam.
3. Name one impact of Islam on Ugandan culture.
 - (i) Eid festivals became part of Ugandan culture.
 - (ii) Building of school
 - (iii) Health centres
 - (iv) modest dressing

Term 3

Theme: Reading from the Qur'an

Topic 1/5: Surat Al-Kafirun

Learning Outcome: The learner develops appreciation for the meaning of the Surah, acquires life skills and develops the ability to relate amicably with others.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Al Kafirun: This is a chapter (Surah) in the Qur'an.
It teaches Muslims to worship only Allah and not to compromise their faith with non-believers.
- (ii) Freedom of Worship: The right for people to choose their religion and pray in the way they believe.
It means no one should be forced to follow a religion they do not believe in.
- (iii) Compromise: An agreement where each side gives up something small to solve a problem.
Example: Two friends share a toy by taking turns.
- (iv) Reconciliation: Restoring peace and friendship after a disagreement.
Example: Two classmates who fought say sorry and become friends again.

Exercise 1

1. What does Surah Al Kafirun teach Muslims?
To worship only Allah.
2. What is freedom of worship?
The right to choose and practice religion.
3. What is compromise?
An agreement where each side gives up something small.
4. What is reconciliation?
Restoring peace and friendship after a disagreement.

Surah Al-Kafirun

Arabic

قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ
لَا أَعْبُدُ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ
وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ
وَلَا أَنَا عَابِدٌ مَّا عَبَدْتُمْ
وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ
لَكُمْ دِينُكُمْ وَلِيَ دِينِ

English

Say, "O disbelievers,

I do not worship what you worship.

Nor are you worshippers of what I worship.

Nor will I be a worshipper of what you worship.

Nor will you be worshippers of what I worship.

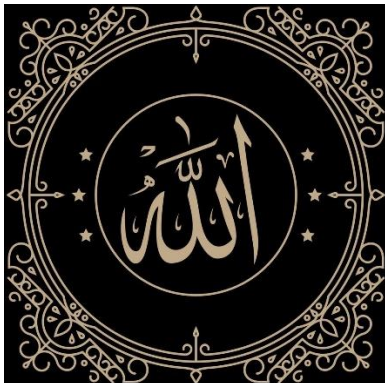

For you is your religion, and for me is mine."

Meaning of the Surah

The Surah teaches Muslims to worship only Allah.

It shows that Muslims should not compromise their faith.

It reminds us to respect others' beliefs but remain firm in Islam.

Name of Allah

Relating the Message to Daily Life

- (i) Faithfulness: Always worship Allah alone.
- (ii) Respect: Live peacefully with people of other religions.
- (iii) Firmness: Do not give up your faith even when others disagree.
- (iv) Tolerance: Allow others to practice their religion while you practice yours.

Exercise 2

1. What does Surah Al-Kafirun teach Muslims?
To worship only Allah.
2. How should Muslims treat people of other religions?
With respect and tolerance.
3. What daily lesson can we learn from Surah Al-Kafirun?
Be firm in your faith and live peacefully with others.

Types of Worship in Other Religions

- (i) Christians
Worship in churches.
Pray to God through Jesus.
Sing hymns and read the Bible.
- (ii) Hindus
Worship in temples.
Pray to many gods and goddesses.
Use offerings like flowers, food, and incense.
- (iii) Buddhists
Worship in temples or shrines.
Meditate and chant.
Show respect to Buddha's teachings.
- (iv) Traditional African Religion

Worship ancestors and spirits.

Use shrines, sacrifices, and dances.

Believe in a supreme God and lesser spirits.

Exercise 3

1. Where do Christians worship?
In churches.
2. What do Hindus use in worship?
Offerings like flowers and incense.
3. How do Buddhists worship?
By meditating and chanting.
4. Who do followers of African Traditional Religion worship?
Ancestors and spirits.

Revision Questions

1. Give one practice which showed that Africans had religion before the introduction of foreign religions.
 - (i) Worship of a Supreme God: Africans believed in one great God who created everything.
 - (ii) Ancestor Worship: They respected and prayed to ancestors for guidance and protection.
 - (iii) Use of Shrines: People built special places (shrines) to pray and offer sacrifices.
 - (iv) Sacrifices and Offerings: They gave food, animals, or drinks to God and spirits as a sign of respect.
 - (v) Traditional Priests and Healers: Priests led prayers and rituals, while healers used herbs to cure sickness.
 - (vi) Festivals and Rituals: Communities gathered for dances, songs, and ceremonies to honor God and spirits.
 - (vii) Belief in Spirits: Africans believed in spirits that lived in rivers, forests, and mountains.

2. (a) Write any two ways in which the five pillars of Islam help to promote peace among Muslims.

- (i) Faith unites Muslims.
- (ii) Prayer brings equality and brotherhood.
- (iii) Charity reduces poverty and spreads love.
- (iv) Fasting teaches patience and kindness.
- (v) Pilgrimage shows unity of Muslims worldwide.

(b) State two ways in which keeping peace in traditional African Society is different from Islamic teaching about peace.

Traditional African Society: Peace was kept through elders, sacrifices, and community customs. While Islamic Teaching: Peace is kept through worship of Allah, greetings of peace, forgiveness, charity, and prayer.

3 (a) State any two reasons why Muslims should worship Allah in their daily lives.

- (i) Allah is the Creator: Muslims worship Allah because He created them and everything in the world.
- (ii) Allah Provides for Us: Allah gives us food, water, health, and life. Worship shows gratitude.
- (iii) Obedience to Allah: Worship is a way of obeying Allah's commands in the Qur'an.
- (iv) Strengthening Faith: Daily worship reminds Muslims of their faith and keeps them close to Allah.
- (v) Peace and Guidance: Worship brings peace to the heart and guidance in life.
- (vi) Unity Among Muslims: When Muslims worship together (like in prayer), it promotes love and unity.
- (vii) Reward in the Hereafter: Worship earns blessings and reward from Allah in this life and the next.

(b) Write any two ways in which Muslims worship Allah.

- (i) Prayer (Salah): Muslims pray five times a day.
- (ii) Charity (Zakah): They give to the poor and needy.

- (iii) Fasting (Sawm): Muslims fast during Ramadan.
- (iv) Pilgrimage (Hajj): They travel to Makkah once in their lifetime if able.
- (v) Faith (Shahadah): Muslims declare belief in Allah and Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).
- (vi) Reading Qur'an: Reciting and learning from the holy book.
- (vii) Good Deeds: Helping others, speaking kindly, and living honestly.

4. Write any one practice that can enable a Muslim to live a faithful life.

by

- (i) praying,
- (ii) reading Qur'an,
- (iii) giving charity,
- (iv) fasting,
- (v) being honest,
- (vi) respecting parents and authority,
- (vii) greeting with peace,
- (viii) avoiding sin.

5. (a) State any one traditional way of reconciliation

- (i) Role of Elders and Chiefs: Elders or chiefs acted as judges and guided people to make peace.
- (ii) Dialogue (Talking Together): People who quarreled were brought together to talk and solve their differences.
- (iii) Apology and Forgiveness: The wrongdoer would say sorry, and the offended person would forgive.
- (iv) Sharing a Meal or Drink: After reconciliation, people often ate or drank together to show unity.
- (v) Ceremonies and Rituals: Sometimes sacrifices or rituals were performed to ask ancestors or spirits to bless the peace.

- (vi) Community Involvement: The whole community supported reconciliation to ensure lasting peace

(b) Mention any two ways in which Muslims carry out reconciliation.

- (i) Forgiveness: Muslims are encouraged to forgive those who wrong them, as Allah loves forgiveness.
- (ii) Dialogue (Talking Peacefully): People who disagree sit together, listen, and solve their problems calmly.
- (iii) Greeting with Salaam: Saying “Assalamu Alaikum” (peace be upon you) helps restore friendship and peace.
- (iv) Seeking Mediation: Elders, leaders, or Imams help settle disputes fairly.
- (v) Charity and Kindness: Helping one another reduces anger and brings back peace.
- (vi) Prayer and Supplication: Muslims pray to Allah to guide them to forgive and live peacefully.

(c) Why is reconciliation very important in our communities?

- (i) Brings Peace: It stops quarrels and fights, helping people live together peacefully.
- (ii) Promotes Unity: Reconciliation brings people back together as friends and family.
- (iii) Encourages Forgiveness: It teaches people to forgive and forget mistakes.
- (iv) Strengthens Relationships: Friends, neighbors, and relatives become closer after making peace.
- (v) Improves Cooperation: When people reconcile, they can work together better in the community.
- (vi) Sets a Good Example: Children learn from adults that solving problems peacefully is better than fighting.

6. Give any one similarity between the first Arab traders and Christian missionaries in Uganda.

- (i) Both brought new religious beliefs to Ugandans.
- (ii) Both promoted learning.
- (iii) Both changed Ugandan culture.
- (iv) Both converted people to their religions.

- (v) Both influence Buganda King and chiefs to support their religion

7. (a) Apart from Islam and Christianity, mention any other religion practiced in Uganda.

- (i) Hinduism – Introduced by Indian traders and workers; worship in temples.
- (ii) Buddhism – Practiced by a small community, focusing on meditation and teachings of Buddha.
- (iii) Traditional African Religion – Many Ugandans still honor ancestors, spirits, and a Supreme

(b) State any three roles of a Muslim religious leader to the government of Uganda.

- (i) They remind leaders to uphold justice, fairness, and integrity.
- (ii) They discourage violence and guide communities toward harmony.
- (iii) Advocate for Muslims' values
- (iv) This strengthens national stability and reduces religious conflict.

8. In which one way can a Muslim reconcile with others?

- (i) Forgiveness: Muslims are encouraged to forgive those who wrong them, as Allah loves forgiveness.
- (ii) Dialogue (Talking Peacefully): People who disagree sit together, listen, and solve their problems calmly.
- (iii) Greeting with Salaam: Saying "Assalamu Alaikum" (peace be upon you) helps restore friendship and peace.
- (iv) Seeking Mediation: Elders, leaders, or Imams help settle disputes fairly.
- (v) Charity and Kindness: Helping one another reduces anger and brings back peace.
- (vi) Prayer and Supplication: Muslims pray to Allah to guide them to forgive and live peacefully.

9. (a) What type of religion existed in Africa before the coming of Islam?

Traditional African Religion

(b) Give any two ways in which believers of the religion in (a) above showed that there was life after death

- (i) Ancestor Worship – They prayed to ancestors, believing they lived on after death.
- (ii) Burial Rites – Dead people were buried with food, tools, or clothes to use in the next life.
- (iii) Sacrifices – Offerings were made to ancestors to keep peace between the living and the dead.
- (iv) Belief in Spirits – They believed spirits of the dead could guide or protect the living.

(c) State any two reasons why some Muslims fear death.

- (i) Judgment Day – Muslims believe they will be judged by Allah for their deeds.
- (ii) Fear of Punishment – Those who did wrong may fear punishment in the Hereafter.
- (iii) Uncertainty – Some fear because they are unsure if they lived faithfully.
- (iv) Leaving Loved Ones – Fear of leaving family and friends behind.

10. Mention any one similarity between Islam and Christianity

- (i) Both Belief in One God
- (ii) Each has a Holy Book: Qur'an for Muslims while Bible for Christians
- (iii) Both communicate to God through prayers
- (iv) Both religions believe in prophets like Abraham and Moses.
- (v) Both gather to worship at mosque or churches
- (vi) Both teach honesty, kindness, forgiveness, and helping others.
- (vii) Both believe in life after death

Term 3

Theme: Tawhiid (Faith)

Topic 2/5: Worship

Learning Outcome: The learner develops appreciation for the master – servant relationship between Allah and man.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Worship: Showing love, respect, and obedience to Allah.
- (ii) Ibada: An Arabic word meaning acts of worship such as prayer, fasting, and charity.
- (iii) Bismillah: Means “In the name of Allah”. Muslims say it before starting any good action.
- (iv) Master: Refers to Allah, who is the Lord and Owner of everything.
- (v) Servant: Refers to human beings, who serve and obey Allah.
- (vi) Niyya: Means intention. Muslims must have a pure intention before worship or doing good deeds.

Exercise 1

1. What do Muslims say before starting any good action?
Bismillah.
2. Who is the Master in Islam?
Allah.
3. What does Niyya mean?
Intention.

Worship

Worship means showing love, respect, and obedience to Allah through prayers and good deeds.

Forms of Worship

- (i) Prayer (Salah) – Muslims pray five times a day.

- (ii) Fasting (Sawm) – Muslims fast during Ramadan.
- (iii) Charity (Zakah/Sadaqah) – Helping the poor and needy.
- (iv) Pilgrimage (Hajj) – Visiting Makkah if able.
- (v) Reading Qur'an – Reciting and learning from the holy book.
- (vi) Good Deeds – Being honest, kind, and respectful.

Worshipping Allah requires good Intentions

Islam as a Complete Way of Life

Islam guides Muslims in beliefs, worship, family life, work, dress, eating, and behavior.

It teaches how to live every day in obedience to Allah.

Relating the Topic to Daily Life

- (i) Saying Bismillah before eating or starting work.
- (ii) Greeting others with Assalamu Alaikum to spread peace.
- (iii) Helping parents and neighbors as part of worship.
- (iv) Being truthful and kind in school and community.
- (v) Praying regularly to stay close to Allah.

Exercise 2

1. Define worship in Islam.
Worship means showing love, respect, and obedience to Allah through prayers and good deeds.
2. Mention two forms of worship practiced by Muslims.
Prayer (Salah) and Fasting (Sawm).
3. Explain how Islam is a complete way of life.
Islam guides Muslims in everything they do: worship, family life, work, dress, eating, and behavior.
4. Give one example of how Muslims relate worship to daily life.
Saying Bismillah before eating or starting any work.
5. Why is it important for Muslims to have intention (Niyya) before worship?
Because intention shows sincerity and ensures the worship is done for Allah alone.

Revision Questions

1. State any one way in which reading the Holy Qur'an regularly helps a Muslim to overcome temptations.
 - (i) Reminds of Allah's Commands: The Qur'an teaches Muslims what is right and wrong, guiding them to avoid bad actions.
 - (ii) Strengthens Faith: Regular reading makes a Muslim's heart strong in belief, helping them resist temptations.
 - (iii) Encourages Good Deeds: The Qur'an inspires kindness, honesty, and patience, which replace bad habits.
 - (iv) Warns Against Sin: It explains the dangers of sin and punishment, reminding Muslims to stay away from temptations.
 - (v) Gives Hope and Comfort: Reading Qur'an brings peace and hope, making it easier to say "no" to wrong choices.
2. (a) Mention any two things that can spoil prayer (swallah).

- (i) Talking during prayer – Speaking to someone or saying words not part of prayer.
- (ii) Eating or drinking – Putting food or water in the mouth while praying.
- (iii) Laughing loudly – Laughing during prayer makes it invalid.
- (iv) Unnecessary movements – Playing, turning around, or moving too much.
- (v) Breaking ablution (wudhu) – If a person loses wudhu, the prayer is spoiled.
- (vi) Facing away from Qiblah – Turning away from the direction of Makkah.
- (vii) Wrong intention (niyya) – Praying without the right intention for Allah.

(b) Write any two ways in which prayer helps a Muslim in times of trouble.

- (i) Brings Comfort and Peace: Prayer calms the heart and mind, reducing fear and sadness.
- (ii) Strengthens Faith: It reminds Muslims that Allah is always near and can help them.
- (iii) Provides Guidance: Through prayer, Muslims ask Allah for wisdom to solve problems.
- (iv) Encourages Patience: Prayer teaches Muslims to wait with hope and trust in Allah's plan.
- (v) Gives Hope: It reminds Muslims that troubles are temporary and Allah will reward those who remain faithful.

3. Give one benefit attending group prayer to a Muslim child.

- (i) Encourages Unity: Praying together teaches children that Muslims are one family.
- (ii) Strengthens Faith: Seeing others pray helps a child grow stronger in belief and practice.
- (iii) Learns Discipline: Group prayer follows order and time, teaching children to be disciplined.
- (iv) Builds Confidence: Praying with others makes a child confident in practicing their religion.
- (v) Promotes Good Behavior: Children learn respect, patience, and kindness by joining others in worship.
- (vi) Receives More Rewards: Islam teaches that group prayer has greater reward than praying alone.

4. (a) State any two reasons why Muslims should Worship Allah in their daily lives.

- (i) Allah is the Creator: Muslims worship Allah because He created them and everything in the world.
- (ii) Allah Provides for Us: He gives life, food, water, and protection, so Muslims show gratitude through worship.
- (iii) Obedience to Allah's Command: Worship is a duty commanded in the Qur'an, so Muslims obey Him daily.
- (iv) Strengthens Faith: Daily worship keeps a Muslim close to Allah and strong in belief.
- (v) Guides Good Behavior: Worship reminds Muslims to be honest, kind, and respectful in their daily actions.
- (vi) Brings Peace and Comfort: Worship helps Muslims feel calm and hopeful, especially in times of trouble.
- (vii) Prepares for the Hereafter: Worship ensures Muslims are ready to meet Allah after death.

(b) Write any two ways in which Muslims worship Allah.

- (i) Prayer (Salah): Muslims pray five times a day facing Makkah.
- (ii) Fasting (Sawm): During Ramadan, Muslims fast from dawn to sunset to show obedience to Allah.
- (iii) Charity (Zakah/Sadaqah): Muslims give part of their wealth to help the poor and needy.
- (iv) Pilgrimage (Hajj): Muslims who are able travel to Makkah once in their lifetime to worship Allah.
- (v) Reciting the Qur'an: Reading and learning from the Qur'an is an act of worship.
- (vi) Good Deeds: Being honest, kind, respectful, and helping others are also forms of worship.
- (vii) Remembrance (Dhikr): Muslims remember Allah by saying phrases like Subhanallah (Glory be to Allah), Alhamdulillah (Praise be to Allah), and Allahu Akbar

5. (a) Give the meaning of the following pillars in Islam:

- (i) Zakah: means giving part of one's wealth to help the poor and needy.
- (ii) Hijjah: means the pilgrimage to Makkah.

(b) Write two conditions that enable a Muslim to observe Hijjah.

- (i) Being a Muslim – Only Muslims can perform Hajj.
- (ii) Being an adult – The person must be mature.
- (iii) Sound mind – The person must be mentally able.
- (iv) Financial ability – Must have enough money for travel and family support.
- (v) Physical ability – Must be healthy and strong enough to perform the rituals.
- (vi) Security – The journey must be safe.

6. State any one way in which Muslims show respect to Allah during prayer.

- (i) Facing the Qiblah: Muslims turn towards Makkah to show unity and respect.
- (ii) Performing Wudhu (Ablution): They wash before prayer to be clean and pure.
- (iii) Standing Humbly: Muslims stand quietly with hands folded, showing humility before Allah.
- (iv) Reciting Qur'an Verses: They use words from the Qur'an, which are Allah's words, with respect.
- (v) Bowing (Ruku) and Prostrating (Sujood): Muslims bow and place their forehead on the ground, showing submission to Allah.
- (vi) Keeping Intention (Niyya): They pray sincerely for Allah alone, not to impress others.
- (vii) Avoiding Distractions: Muslims stay focused and avoid talking, laughing, or playing during prayer.

7. "Verily we have granted you A Kauther, turn in prayer to your Lord and sacrifice ..."

108:1-3

(a) Who said the above words?

Allah (God)

(b) To who were the word said?

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

(c) Mention any two things you learn from the above quotation

- (i) Allah gives blessings – Muslims learn that all blessings come from Allah.
- (ii) Importance of prayer – Muslims should always turn to Allah in prayer.
- (iii) Sacrifice for Allah – Muslims should sacrifice animals or wealth sincerely for Allah.
- (iv) Gratitude – Muslims must be thankful for Allah's gifts.
- (v) Obedience – Worship and sacrifice show obedience to Allah's commands.

8. Name any one of Allah's promises to faithful Muslims.

- (i) Paradise (Jannah): Allah promises eternal life in Paradise for those who believe and do good deeds.
- (ii) Forgiveness of Sins: Faithful Muslims who repent sincerely are promised forgiveness.
- (iii) Peace and Happiness: Allah promises peace in the heart and comfort in this life for those who worship Him.
- (iv) Protection and Guidance: Allah guides faithful Muslims on the right path and protects them from harm.
- (v) Rewards for Good Deeds: Every good action, even small ones, will be rewarded by Allah.
- (vi) Success in Both Worlds: Faithful Muslims are promised success in this world and the Hereafter.

9. (a) Mention any two types of prayers in Islam.

- (i) Obligatory Prayers (Fardh Salah): These are the five daily prayers: Fajr, Dhuhr, Asr, Maghrib, and Isha.
Every Muslim must perform them.
- (ii) Optional Prayers (Sunnah Salah): These are extra prayers taught and practiced by Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).
They bring more reward and closeness to Allah.
- (iii) Voluntary Prayers (Nafil Salah): Muslims can pray at any time for extra blessings.

They are not compulsory but show love for Allah.

- (iv) Friday Prayer (Jumu'ah Salah): A special prayer held every Friday in congregation. It replaces the Dhuhr prayer on that day.
- (v) Funeral Prayer (Salat al-Janazah): A prayer offered for a Muslim who has passed away.
- (vi) Eid Prayers (Salat al-Eid): Special prayers performed on Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha.

(b) Apart from praying, state any other way Muslims communicate to Allah.

- (i) Supplication (Du'a): Muslims raise their hands and ask Allah for help, guidance, or forgiveness in their own words.
- (ii) Reciting the Qur'an: Reading and reflecting on Allah's words is a way of listening and responding to Him.
- (iii) Remembrance (Dhikr): Saying phrases like Subhanallah (Glory be to Allah), Alhamdulillah (Praise be to Allah), and Allahu Akbar (Allah is Great).
- (iv) Fasting (Sawm): During Ramadan, Muslims show obedience and devotion, which is a form of communication with Allah.
- (v) Charity (Zakah/Sadaqah): Helping the poor is a way of showing gratitude and obedience to Allah.

(c) State any one way prayer is important in Islam.

- (i) Obedience to Allah: Prayer is one of the five pillars of Islam, so Muslims perform it to obey Allah's command.
- (ii) Connection with Allah: It helps Muslims stay close to Allah and remember Him daily.
- (iii) Guides Good Behavior: Prayer reminds Muslims to be honest, kind, and respectful in their actions.
- (iv) Brings Peace and Comfort: It calms the heart and gives hope, especially in times of trouble.
- (v) Shows Unity: When Muslims pray together, it shows that they are one family.
- (vi) Forgiveness of Sins: Prayer helps Muslims seek forgiveness and mercy from Allah.

10. (a) Name the special day of the week when Muslims have general prayers.

Friday (Jumu'ah).

(b) Why was the day named above chosen for general prayers?

- (i) Friday was chosen because it is a blessed day in Islam.
- (ii) Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) taught Muslims to gather for prayer on this day.

(c) Mention any two things general prayer promotes among Muslims.

- (i) Unity – Muslims pray together as one family.
- (ii) Brotherhood – It strengthens friendship and love among Muslims.
- (iii) Discipline – Attending prayer on time teaches order and respect.
- (iii) Faith – It increases belief and closeness to Allah.
- (iv) Equality – All Muslims stand side by side, rich or poor, showing fairness.

11. Why do Moslems stand in rows during prayers?

- (i) Shows Unity: Standing side by side reminds Muslims that they are one family before Allah.
- (ii) Equality: Rich and poor, young and old, all stand together without difference.
- (iii) Order and Discipline: Rows make the prayer organized and respectful.
- (iv) Strength in Worship: Praying in rows shows strength and togetherness in worship.
- (v) Following the Sunnah: Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) taught Muslims to pray in straight rows.

12. (a) What is the first prayer for the day in Islam?

Fajr

(b) Why is this prayer important?

- (i) It begins the day with remembrance of Allah.
- (ii) It teaches discipline by waking up early.
- (iii) It protects Muslims from laziness and forgetfulness.

(c) Name the prayer performed immediately the sun sets.

Maghrib.

(d) How does fasting help in the health of Moslems?

Term 3

Theme: Fiqh (Practice)

Topic 3/5: Ratio of Zakah

Learning Outcome: The learner develops the skill of calculating the ratios of Zakah for different items.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Nisaab: This is the minimum amount of wealth a Muslim must have before Zakah (charity) becomes compulsory.
- (ii) Ratio: A ratio shows the relationship between two numbers.
Example: If there are 2 boys and 3 girls, the ratio is 2:3.
- (iii) Percentage: A percentage is a number out of 100.
Example: 50% means 50 out of 100.
- (iv) Calculate: To calculate means to work out or find the answer using numbers.
Example: If you have 2 apples and get 3 more, you calculate $2 + 3 = 5$.

Nisaab

This is the minimum amount of wealth a Muslim must have before giving Zakah (charity) becomes compulsory.

Calculating Percentages of Different Items

Percentage means “out of 100.”

To calculate a percentage:

$$\text{Percentage} = \frac{\text{Part}}{\text{Whole}} \times 100$$

Simple Examples for Pupils

If a child scores 40 marks out of 50 in a test: $\frac{40}{50} \times 100 = 80\%$.

If a shop sells 25 apples out of 100, that is 25%.

If a Muslim gives 2.5% of wealth as Zakah, it means for every 100 shillings, they give 2 shillings and 50 cents to the poor.

Relating the Topic to Daily Life

Nisaab: Teaches Muslims to share wealth when they have enough.

Percentage: Helps pupils understand Zakah in Islam.

Calculation: Used in everyday life for counting money, marks, or items.

Exercise 3

1. What is Nisaab?

It is the minimum wealth a Muslim must have before giving Zakah.

2. How much Zakah does a Muslim give from 200 shillings?

$$\frac{2.5}{100} \times 200 = 5\text{shillings.}$$

3. What are benefits of paying zakah.

- (i) Helps the Poor: Zakah supports needy people with food, clothes, and shelter.
- (ii) Purifies Wealth: It cleans a Muslim’s wealth, making it blessed by Allah.
- (iii) Obedience to Allah: Paying Zakah fulfills one of the five pillars of Islam.
- (iv) Promotes Sharing and Kindness: It teaches Muslims to care for others and not be selfish.
- (v) Reduces Poverty: Zakah helps balance wealth in society.
- (vi) Strengthens Brotherhood: It brings Muslims closer together through helping one another.

Term 3

Theme: Hadith (Traditions of the Prophet)

Topic 4/5: Uprightness and Adolescence

Learning Outcome: The learner understands and appreciates the content of Hadith, adopts skills and practices values advanced therein.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Uprightness: Being honest, good, and doing the right things.
- (ii) Adolescence: The stage of life between childhood and adulthood (teenage years).
- (iii) Elders: Older people in the community, respected for their wisdom and age.
- (iv) Juniors: Younger people, often children or those with less experience.
- (v) Authority: The power or right to give orders, make decisions, and guide others.
- (vi) Loyalty: Being faithful, trustworthy, and standing by someone or something.

Exercise 1

1. Who are elders in a community?
Older people who are respected.
2. What does loyalty mean?
Being faithful and trustworthy.
3. What stage of life is called adolescence?
The teenage years between childhood and adulthood.

Exercise 2

Complete the crossword puzzle below

Across	Down
1. teenage stage.	2. power to lead or guide.
3. faithfulness and trust	4. older respected people
5. being good and honest	6. younger or less experienced people

1, 2				4
											6
		3
	5

Hadith concerning uprightness and adolescence.

Hadith Narration

Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

- (i) “Be upright and truthful, for uprightness leads to goodness, and goodness leads to Paradise.”
- (ii) “Take advantage of your youth before old age.”

Meaning of the Hadith

Uprightness means being honest, truthful, and doing what is right.

Adolescence (youth) is a special time when Muslims should use their strength and energy to worship Allah and do good deeds.

The Hadith teaches that honesty and using youth wisely bring blessings and reward from Allah.

Elder

Youth

Relating the Message to Daily Life

- (i) At School – Pupils should be honest in exams and homework.
- (ii) At Home – Adolescents should respect parents and help with chores.
- (iii) In the Community – Young people should avoid bad habits and use their time for learning and helping others.
- (iv) In Worship – Adolescents should pray regularly and remember Allah while they are strong.

Exercise 3

1. What does uprightness mean in Islam?
Being honest and truthful.
2. What should adolescents use their youth for?
Worshipping Allah and doing good deeds.
3. According to the Hadith, what does uprightness lead to?
Goodness and Paradise.

Qualities of an Upright Person

- (i) Honesty – Always tells the truth.
- (ii) Obedience – Follows Allah’s commands and respects elders.
- (iii) Kindness – Treats others with care and respect.
- (iv) Fairness – Does not cheat or take what is not theirs.
- (v) Responsibility – Keeps promises and duties.
- (vi) Respectfulness – Shows good manners to elders and juniors.

Signs of Adolescence

Adolescence is the stage between childhood and adulthood (teenage years). Signs include:

- (i) Physical Changes – Growth in height, deeper voice in boys, changes in body shape.
- (ii) Emotional Changes – Stronger feelings, mood swings, wanting independence.
- (iii) Social Changes – Spending more time with friends, learning responsibility.
- (iv) Religious Responsibility – At adolescence, Muslims are expected to start observing prayers, fasting, and other duties seriously.

Exercise 4

1. Mention two qualities of an upright person.
Honesty and kindness.
2. What stage of life is called adolescence?
The teenage years between childhood and adulthood.
3. Name one physical change during adolescence.
Growth in height.
5. Why is adolescence important in Islam?
Because Muslims begin to take full responsibility for prayers and fasting.

Term 3

Theme: Islamic History of Islam

Topic 5/5: Islam in Buganda

Learning Outcome: The learner develops appreciation for the role played by Muteesa I in the spread of Islam and the circumstances under which Islam was spread in Buganda.

Meaning of key terms

- (i) Muteesa I: He was a king of Buganda (in Uganda) who ruled in the 1800s.
He is remembered for welcoming foreign visitors and missionaries.
- (ii) Role: The duty or responsibility someone has.
Example: A teacher's role is to teach pupils.
- (iii) Spread: To move or extend from one place to another.
Example: Islam spread from Arabia to other countries.
- (iv) Religious Wars: Fights or conflicts that happen because of differences in religion.
- (v) Effects: The results or outcomes of something.
Example: The effect of studying hard is passing exams.
- (vi) Causes: The reasons why something happens.
Example: The cause of rain is clouds becoming heavy with water.

Exercise 1

1. Who was Muteesa I?
A king of Buganda.
2. What does "role" mean?
Duty or responsibility.
3. What is the difference between "cause" and "effect"?
Cause is the reason something happens, effect is the result.

Role of Muteesa I in the Spread of Islam

Kabaka of Buganda Muteesa I

- (i) Welcomed Muslim traders and teachers from Zanzibar and Egypt, allowing them to settle in Buganda.
- (ii) Adopted Islamic practices such as observing fasting and encouraging Qur'an recitation at his palace.
- (iii) Used Islam politically to strengthen his authority and build alliances with Muslim powers abroad.
- (iv) Encouraged chiefs and courtiers to learn Islamic teachings, which helped Islam spread among the elite.
- (v) Opened Buganda to foreign religions (later also Christianity), making his court a center of religious exchange.

Causes of Religious Wars in Buganda

- (i) Competition among religions – Muslims, Catholics, Protestants, and traditionalists all wanted influence at the king's palace.
- (ii) Foreign missionary rivalry – Protestant missionaries (CMS) and Catholic missionaries (White Fathers) competed for converts.
- (iii) Political power struggles – Religion became tied to politics, with chiefs and factions using faith to gain influence.
- (iv) Resistance to change – Traditionalists opposed new religions that challenged Buganda's cultural practices.
- (v) Succession disputes – After Muteesa I's death, Kabaka Mwanga II faced conflicts worsened by religious divisions.

Effects of Religious Wars in Buganda

- (i) Loss of life – Many people, including the Uganda Martyrs, were killed during conflicts.
- (ii) Division in society – Buganda was split into religious factions, weakening unity.
- (iii) Foreign intervention – Missionaries sought protection from European powers, paving the way for colonial influence.

- (iv) Spread of Christianity and Islam – Despite violence, both religions gained more followers.
- (v) Cultural change – Traditional practices lost influence as new religions reshaped Buganda's identity.

Exercise 2

1. Who helped Islam spread in Buganda?
Kabaka Muteesa I.
2. What caused religious wars in Buganda?
Rivalry between Muslims, Catholics, Protestants, and traditionalists.
3. Mention one effect of the religious wars.
Loss of life and division in society.

Revision Questions

1. Name the Kabaka of Buganda who welcomed the first Arab traders in Uganda
Kabaka Muteesa I
2. Mention any two contributions of Islam to the development of Uganda.
 - (i) Education – Muslims established schools and taught reading and writing, especially through the Qur'an.
 - (ii) Trade – Arab Muslim traders promoted business and exchange of goods.
 - (iii) Health and Cleanliness – Islam encouraged hygiene practices like washing before prayers.
 - (iv) Unity and Brotherhood – Islam taught cooperation and caring for the poor through Zakah.
 - (v) Religious Diversity – Islam added to Uganda's cultural and religious heritage.
3. Give any one similarity between the first Arab traders and the Christian missionaries in Uganda.
 - (i) Both introduced new religions (Islam and Christianity) to Uganda.
 - (ii) Both taught reading and writing using their holy books (Qur'an and Bible).