Item 1

Scenario

A community-based organization in Uganda is running a campaign to promote environmental awareness through art. They want artists to create works using recycled materials to educate the public about pollution and waste management.

Task

As an Art & Design student, describe how you would use locally available waste materials to create a piece of art that communicates an environmental message.

Item 2

Scenario

A small-scale entrepreneur wants to start a craft business making handmade items such as bags, jewellery, and home décor using traditional Ugandan motifs. She approaches your school to help design items that are both functional and artistic.

Task

As an Art & Design student, suggest how you would incorporate traditional Ugandan patterns into the design of one functional craft item.
