Term 1

Theme: HADITH (PROPHET'S TRADITIONS)

Topic 4/5: IMPURITIES

Learning Outcome: The learner is able identify impurities and keep away from them.

Meaning of key term

- (i) Impure – Not clean; something dirty or unfit for prayer.
- (ii) Impurities – Things that make a person or clothes dirty, such as urine or faeces.
- (iii) Purify – To make clean again, for example by washing with water.
- (iv) Faeces – Waste that comes out of the body through the toilet (stool).
- (v) Vomit – What comes out of the mouth when someone feels sick.
- (vi) Urine – The liquid waste that comes out of the body when we go to the toilet.

Easy Summary for Pupils

- Impure means dirty.
- Impurities are dirty things.
- Purify means to make clean.
- Faeces, vomit, and urine are examples of impurities.

Exercise 1

1. What does “impure” mean?
It means not clean or dirty, unfit for prayer.
2. Give two examples of impurities.
Faeces, urine, vomit.
3. What does “purify” mean?
It means to make clean again, usually by washing with water.
4. Name one waste that comes from the body.
Faeces (stool) or urine.

Hadith concerning impurities

Two important Hadiths teach Muslims how to deal with impurities: one about cleaning urine in the mosque, and another about washing vessels licked by a dog.

Both show the Prophet Muhammad's (peace be upon him) guidance on purity and respect for worship.

Two Prophetic Traditions Concerning Impurities

1. Urine in the Mosque

- Narrated by Anas ibn Malik: A desert Arab urinated in the mosque. The companions tried to stop him, but the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Do not interrupt him; leave him alone."
- After he finished, the Prophet (ﷺ) explained that mosques are for prayer and remembrance of Allah, not for filth. He then ordered water to be poured over the spot to clean it.
- Lesson: Impurities must be removed with water, and worship places must be kept pure.

2. Vessel Licked by a Dog

- Narrated by Abu Hurayrah: The Prophet (ﷺ) said: "If a dog licks the vessel of any one of you, let him wash it seven times, the first of which should be with dust."
- This Hadith shows that some impurities require special cleaning methods.
- Lesson: Certain impurities (like a dog's saliva) are considered severe and must be purified carefully.

Easy Summary for Pupils

- Hadith 1: Urine in the mosque was cleaned with water.
- Hadith 2: A vessel licked by a dog must be washed seven times, first with dust.
- Message: Islam teaches cleanliness, respect for worship places, and proper ways to remove impurities.

Exercise 2

1. What did the Prophet (ﷺ) say when a man urinated in the mosque?

He told the companions not to interrupt him, and afterwards explained that mosques are for prayer and remembrance of Allah. He ordered water to be poured over the spot to clean it.

2. How should a vessel licked by a dog be cleaned?

It should be washed seven times, and the first wash should be done with dust or soil.

3. Why must impurities be removed before prayer?

Because prayer requires cleanliness and purity, showing respect to Allah and making the worship valid.

Easy Summary for Pupils

(i) Urine in the mosque was cleaned with water.

(ii) A vessel licked by a dog must be washed seven times, first with dust.

(iii) Impurities must be removed so prayer is pure and respectful before Allah.

How Hadiths Relate to Daily Life

(i) Healthy Living

- Islam teaches cleanliness to protect health.
- Removing impurities (like urine, faeces, vomit) prevents sickness.

(ii) Living in a Good Environment

- Keeping mosques, homes, and surroundings clean makes them pleasant and safe.
- Pouring water on impurities (as in the Hadith) keeps the environment pure.

(iii) Stagnant Water vs Flowing Water

- Stagnant water (still water) can collect dirt and germs, so it should not be used for purification.
- Flowing water (like rivers or taps) washes away impurities and is safe for cleaning.

(iv) Things That Are Impure

- Examples: faeces, urine, vomit, blood, and saliva of dogs.
- These must be cleaned before prayer.

(v) Dangers of Using Impure Things

- Impure things can spread disease.
- They make prayer invalid because purity is required.

(vi) Personal Hygiene

- Washing hands, bathing, and wearing clean clothes keep the body pure.
- This prevents illness and shows respect to Allah.

(vii) Cleaning Utensil Licked by a Dog

- The Prophet (ﷺ) taught that such a vessel must be washed seven times, first with dust.
- This removes germs and impurity, keeping utensils safe for use.

Easy Summary for Pupils

Hadiths about impurities teach Muslims to live clean and healthy lives, keep their environment pure, avoid impure things, and practice good hygiene every day.

Exercise 3

1. Why is stagnant water not good for purification?
Because stagnant water collects dirt and germs, while flowing water washes impurities away and keeps things clean.
2. Name two examples of impurities.
Faeces and urine (also vomit, blood, or dog saliva).
3. What danger comes from using impure things?
They can spread disease and make prayer invalid because purity is required.
4. How should a vessel licked by a dog be cleaned?
It should be washed seven times, with the first wash using dust or soil.

Revision questions

1. Narrate any Hadith regarding impurities.
A desert Arab urinated in the mosque. The companions wanted to stop him, but the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "Do not interrupt him; leave him alone." Afterwards, the Prophet explained that mosques are for prayer and remembrance of Allah, and he ordered water to be poured over the spot to clean it.
2. Interpret the meaning of the given Hadith
The Hadith teaches that impurities must be cleaned with water, and worship places must be kept pure. It also shows the Prophet's kindness and wisdom in teaching people gently.
3. Identify impure substances.

- (i) Faeces (stool)
 - (ii) Urine
 - (iii) Vomit
 - (iv) Blood
 - (v) Dog saliva

Recite: Surah Al-Humaza (Arabic)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
 وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ
 الَّذِي جَمَعَ مَالًا وَعَدَّدَهُ
 يَحْسَبُ أَنَّ مَالَهُ أَخْلَدَهُ
 كَلَّا لَيُنْبَذَنَّ فِي الْحُطَمَةِ
 وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحُطَمَةُ
 نَارُ اللَّهِ الْمَوْقِدَةُ
 الَّتِي تَطَّلِعُ عَلَى الْأَفْئِدَةِ
 إِنَّهَا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّوَصَّدَةٌ
 فِي عَمَدٍ مُمَدَّدَةٍ

Surah Al-Humaza (English)

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful:

Woe to every slanderer and backbiter.

Who gathers wealth and counts it.

He thinks that his wealth will make him last forever.

No! He will surely be thrown into the Crusher.

And what will make you know what the Crusher is?

It is the fire of Allah, kindled.

Which rises over the hearts.

Indeed, it will be closed down upon them.

In extended columns.

Hadith on Imān

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: "Imān (faith) has over seventy branches, the highest of which is saying 'La ilaha illallah' (There is no god but Allah), and the lowest is removing something harmful from the road. And modesty is a part of Imān." (Source: Sahih Muslim)

Easy Explanation for Pupils

- (i) Faith is not just belief in the heart, but also good actions.
- (ii) Saying La ilaha illallah is the strongest part of faith.
- (iii) Even small good deeds, like removing harmful things from the road, are part of faith.
- (iv) Being modest and respectful is also part of faith.

Lessons from the Hadith on Imān

- (i) Faith is both belief and action: Saying La ilaha illallah is the strongest part of faith, but even small good deeds like removing harm from the road are also part of faith.
- (ii) Modesty is important: Respecting yourself and others is part of being a good Muslim.
- (iii) Every good deed counts: No matter how small, it strengthens your faith.

Relating the Hadith on Imān to real life

- (i) Saying “La ilaha illallah”: In daily life, we remember Allah by reciting this and keeping faith strong.
- (ii) Removing harm from the road: If you see a stone, banana peel, or broken glass on the path, you pick it up so others don’t get hurt. That small action is part of Imān.
- (iii) Modesty: Dressing respectfully, speaking politely, and showing good manners at school or home are ways to live with faith.

Exercise 1

1. What is the highest branch of Imān?
Saying La ilaha illallah.
2. What is the lowest branch of Imān?
Removing harmful things from the road.
3. Is modesty part of Imān?
4. Yes, modesty is part of faith.

Hadith on Forgiveness

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: "Allah is more pleased with the repentance of His servant than one of you who finds his camel after losing it in the desert." (Source: Sahih Muslim)

Asking for Allah's forgiveness

Easy Explanation for Pupils

- (i) Allah loves to forgive His servants when they repent sincerely.
- (ii) Just like someone is very happy to find something precious they lost, Allah is even happier when a person turns back to Him.
- (iii) This shows that forgiveness is always open if we ask Allah with a pure heart.

Lessons from the Hadith on Forgiveness

- (i) Allah loves to forgive: He is happier when we repent than someone who finds something precious they lost.
- (ii) Repentance is always open: No matter the mistake, we can turn back to Allah sincerely.

- (iii) We should forgive others too: Just as Allah forgives us, we should show mercy and forgive people around us.

Relating the Hadith on Forgiveness to real life

- (i) Repenting to Allah: If you make a mistake, like lying or being rude, you ask Allah for forgiveness and promise to do better.
- (ii) Forgiving others: If a friend annoys you or takes your pencil, instead of fighting, you forgive them. This makes Allah happy.
- (iii) Daily kindness: Saying sorry when wrong, forgiving siblings, and not holding grudges are ways to practice forgiveness every day.

Exercise 2

1. Who is happiest when a servant repents?
Allah is happiest.
2. What does repentance mean?
Repentance means asking Allah for forgiveness and promising not to repeat the sin.
3. What lesson do we learn from this Hadith?
We should always repent and seek Allah's forgiveness, because Allah loves to forgive.

Combined Lessons for Pupils

- (i) Faith shows in actions – even small good deeds count.
- (ii) Forgiveness keeps hearts clean – forgiving others makes life peaceful.
- (iii) A good Muslim lives with both Imān and forgiveness – believing in Allah, doing good deeds, and forgiving mistakes.

Istighfār and repentance (Tawbah)

- Istighfār means asking Allah for forgiveness, usually by saying Astaghfirullāh (“I seek forgiveness from Allah”).
- Repentance (Tawbah) is turning back to Allah after doing wrong. It includes:
 - (i) Feeling sorry for the sin.
 - (ii) Stopping the sin immediately.

- (iii) Promising not to do it again.
- (iv) Asking Allah for forgiveness (Istighfār).

Easy Explanation for Pupils

- Istighfār is part of repentance.
- Repentance (Tawbah) is bigger: it means changing your heart, actions, and asking Allah to forgive you.
- So, Istighfār is like saying sorry, while repentance is saying sorry and changing your behavior.

Example for Daily Life

- If a child lies, then says Astaghfirullāh, that is Istighfār.
- If the child also feels sorry, stops lying, and promises to be truthful, that is full repentance (Tawbah).

Surah Al-Falak (113)

Recite Surah Al-Falak (113)

Arabic:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ
مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ
وَمِنْ شَرِّ غَاسِقٍ إِذَا وَقَبَ
وَمِنْ شَرِّ النَّفَّاثَاتِ فِي الْعُقَدِ
وَمِنْ شَرِّ حَاسِدٍ إِذَا حَسَدَ

English

I seek protection with Allah, the Lord of the dawn.
From the evil of what He has created.
From the darkness when it spreads.
From those who blow in knots (do evil magic).
And from the envy of the jealous when they envy.

Meaning of Surah Al-Falak

The Prophet’s Journey (Hijrah)

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) lived in Mecca, but many Meccans opposed his message.

Allah commanded him to migrate to Medina for safety and to spread Islam.

Together with his close companion Abu Bakr (RA), he left Mecca secretly at night.

On the way, they hid in the Cave of Thawr. A spider made a web and a bird made a nest at the cave’s entrance, so the enemies thought no one was inside.

After a few days, they continued their journey until they reached Medina.

The people of Medina welcomed him with joy, singing and celebrating.

This migration is called the Hijrah, and it marks the beginning of the Islamic calendar.

Problems Encountered on the Journey

- (i) Enemies chasing him – The Meccans wanted to stop him from leaving and even planned to harm him.
- (ii) Hiding in the cave – He and Abu Bakr (RA) had to hide in the Cave of Thawr to escape danger.
- (iii) Fear of being found – Abu Bakr (RA) worried that the enemies might discover them in the cave.
- (iv) Long travel – The journey from Mecca to Medina was far and tiring.
- (v) Heat and desert conditions – They had to travel through hot, dry land with little water

Lessons for Pupils
