

MENTOR HIGH SCHOOL KITENDE
COMPETENCE BASED ASSESSMENT 2026

END OF TERM I EXAM 2026

S.3 BIOLOGY

TIME: 1 ½ HOURS

NAME..... SIGN.....

INSTRUCTIONS

ATTEMPT ALL ITEMS

SECTION A; Attempt all

ITEM 1

In the village of Kigungu located in Entebbe, local farmers predominantly cultivate bananas and cassava. However, the village recently faced a prolonged dry spell followed by strong winds which brought a significant amount of dust that settled on the leaves and stems of banana and cassava crops. The farmers are worried that if this problem persists, it could lead to severe losses in their harvests.

Task

- (a) Identify the life processes affected in the plants

.....
.....
.....

- (b) Explain

- (i) How the functioning of these plants is affected

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

- (ii) Solutions that the farmers of Kigungu could implement to overcome the challenges posed by dust on their crops.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Item 2

In 2020, the world faced a serious pandemic where the citizens were found ill of a strange viral disease. One patient was admitted in the hospital and analysis done on his blood sample. In the eye piece of an electron microscope was figure P , then another patient was also admitted but his blood was viewed to have both figures P and k .

SUPPORT MATERIAL

Figure P

Figure K

Task

Basing on the doctor's observations under microscope, describe three characteristics of each organism he found in the microscope.

- (i)
-
-
-
-
- (ii)
-
-
-
-
-

(b) Explain four ways in which the transmission of the organism observed in figures can be prevented.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

SECTION B (attempt one item)

Item 3

Joan was always sick and initially resisted seeking medical attention because she is very stubborn but eventually realized the negative impact her deteriorating health was having on her life. When she was taken to the hospital, reported symptoms of frequent urination, lower abdominal pain, Hematuria (blood urine), fatigue, Nausea, vomiting, swollen feet and ankles. When her urine was tested, it had a lot of proteins.

An examination also revealed difficult in standing and alcohol on her breath.

Task

- (a) Identify the organs which were affected by the patient's symptoms
- (b) Identify the role this(these) organ(s) play(s) in the body.
- (c) Describe the events that led to the formation of the urine that was taken to the lab for testing.
- (d) Suggest strategies for managing the condition she is suffering from.

ITEM 4

Miracle's husband is addicted to cigarette smoking. He smokes inside their poorly ventilated house. His teeth have plaque and cavities and he has a bad breath from his mouth which makes Miracle uncomfortable. Miracle has been pregnant and she recently gave birth to a baby. Both

Miracle and the baby have many health complications. When Sarah visited the hospital, she was informed that their health complications were brought about by the husband's actions. The child needed a transfusion but the suitable blood was missing. Miracle got annoyed when she was informed but she could not assist her child with a blood donation.'

SUPPORT MATERIAL

Task

- (a) Explain why Miracle was unable to assist her child at the hospital.
- (b) How did the husband's action affect Miracle and the baby?
- (c) Suggest what can be done to improve on the husband's mouth conditions. (15 scores)

END

"If you're going through hell, keep going."