Section B (50 Marks)

51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

The Importance of Hygiene

Good hygiene is essential for maintaining health and preventing the spread of diseases. In many schools across Uganda, pupils are taught to wash their hands with soap and clean water after using the latrine and before eating food. This simple habit helps to keep germs away.

Last term, St. Jude Primary School organized a "Health Awareness Week." During this event, a medical officer from the nearby health center visited the school. She talked to the pupils about the dangers of drinking unboiled water and the importance of keeping the school environment clean. She emphasized that a clean school leads to healthy learners who perform well in their studies.

QUESTIONS

(a) Why is good hygiene essential?

.....

.....

(b) When should pupils wash their hands according to the passage?

.....

.....
