51 Read the passage below and in full sentences answer the questions that follow. Section B (50 Marks)

Last week, Jane and I went to visit our uncle in Jinja. We travelled in our father's black car. While on the way, Jane showed me interesting places. These places include Mabira Forest and the new bridge.

After crossing the bridge, we all felt hungry. Our father took us to Karuma Hotel. One of the biggest hotels in Jinja to have lunch. We took thirty minutes having lunch. We then continued with our journey to Buwenge where our uncle lives. We arrived at 4:00 p.m. We found our uncle waiting for us along Mbale Road.

He warmly welcomed us and directed us to his home. Immediately we reached home, we sat under the mango tree. It was season for mangoes. Our uncle gave us mangoes and we enjoyed them while sharing stories. We spent there two days and returned to Kampala. It was really an interesting journey. I cannot wait to go back.

Questions.

(a) Where did the writer go last week?

(b) How did they travel?

(c) What was the colour of the car?

(d) Mention one place Jane showed the writer.

(e) What happened when they crossed the bridge?

(f) From which hotel did they have lunch?

(g) How long did lunch take?

(h) Where does the writer's uncle live?

(i) At what time did they arrive?

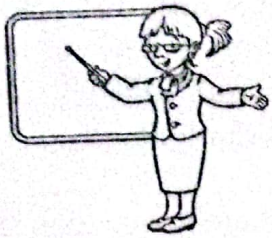

(j) Suggest a suitable title for the passage.

52. - Read the poem below and in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

MY TEACHER

Things have changed a little,
Since our teacher took a leave
For two weeks now,
We all wait for your return

You are my best teacher, Miss Esther
To me, you stand among the best
Helping me each day to learn
From your extra lessons I learn more

For the two years, we have been with you,
You have taught us handwriting,
Letter sounds and reading
We have a future because of you.

Little boys and little girls,
Listen to your teachers
Take your homework and school work serious
Your teacher will guide you
You will learn English.

By Samantha
