Section B (50 Marks)

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer in full sentence the questions that follow.

THE PROUD FARMER

Mr. Omongo is a farmer in Njeru Village. He once owned a large garden. This garden used to produce plenty of food. This made him proud and used to laugh at his neighbour, whose garden was small. He refused to share farming knowledge with him.

One day, heavy rain destroyed most of the farmer's crops. His neighbour, however, still had enough food because he had planted different crops in different places. The neighbour kindly shared some food with the farmer. The farmer felt ashamed and promised never to look down on others again.

The moral lesson is we should be humble and never laugh at others.

52. Read the poem below carefully and then answer in full sentence the questions that follow.

PERSONAL HYGIENE

We bathe each day and brush our teeth
We wash our hands with soap
We comb our hair and keep clothes clean
And keep our fingernails short with care.

When we neglect these healthy habits
Diseases may attack our bodies
Bad smell may drive our friends away
And bring us shame as well.

Dear boys and girls, be clean each day
Take good care of your body
Bathe twice a day and trim nails short
Practice hygiene every day.

Apio Deo
P.5
