INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

- * This paper consists of seven (7) items arranged in two sections, A and B.
- * Answer FIVE (5) items in all.
- * Answer ALL items in Section A.
- * In Section B Part I, answer ONE item.
- * In Section B Part II, answer ONE item.
- * Begin each item on a fresh page.

SECTION A

Answer all items

ITEM 1

For many years, Christians in Nyakatonzi Parish enjoyed peace, prosperity and active participation in church programmes. However, the area was recently affected by floods that destroyed homes, crops and livestock. Many families lost their property and some church members died during the disaster.

As suffering increased, some believers began questioning God's faithfulness. Others stopped attending church services and sought solutions through witchcraft and traditional religious practices. Church leaders organized prayer meetings and Bible study sessions to encourage members to remain faithful.

Tasks

- (a) Using teachings from the Pentateuch, explain how believers can maintain their covenant relationship with God during difficult circumstances.
- (b) Examine the lessons from Psalm 46 that can help Christians facing challenges in life.
- (c) Assess the teachings from the Book of Job that are relevant to the situation presented above.

ITEM 2

St. Andrew's Church has experienced leadership challenges. Some leaders misuse church funds, favour influential members and neglect the needs of vulnerable Christians. Several believers have become discouraged and lost confidence in church leadership.

A group of concerned Christians has called for accountability, justice and servant leadership based on biblical teachings.

Tasks

- (a) Explain the characteristics of leadership during the Theocratic Period in Israel.
- (b) Assess the failures of kingship in Israel that can be observed among some leaders today.
- (c) Examine the role of prophets in promoting justice and righteousness in society.
- (d) Suggest biblical principles that can help restore effective leadership in the church.

ITEM 3

Joseph, a youth evangelist, was commissioned to spread the Gospel in a community where Christianity was not widely accepted. He preached, organized Bible study groups and supported vulnerable people.

Some residents opposed his ministry, mocked him and accused him of misleading young people. As opposition increased, Joseph became discouraged and considered abandoning his work.

Tasks

- (a) Relate Joseph's experiences to the ministry of Jesus Christ in the Gospels.
- (b) Explain how Jesus responded to opposition during His ministry.
- (c) Assess the contribution of the Early Church to the spread of Christianity.
- (d) Examine the teachings from the Epistles that can encourage Christians facing persecution.

SECTION B

PART I

Answer one item

ITEM 4

Several families in a district are experiencing increasing cases of divorce, domestic violence, unfaithfulness and neglect of parental responsibilities. Religious leaders have organized family conferences to strengthen Christian marriages and promote responsible parenting.

Tasks

- (a) Assess Christian teachings on marriage and family life.
- (b) Examine the responsibilities of family members in promoting harmony and stability.
- (c) Analyse African Traditional values that strengthen marriage.
- (d) Suggest practical measures for strengthening families in contemporary society.

OR

ITEM 5

Many young people in a municipality spend their leisure time engaging in gambling, excessive use of social media, substance abuse and other activities that negatively affect their lives.

Religious leaders have encouraged the youth to engage in productive activities such as sports, worship, community service and talent development.

Tasks

- (a) Analyse Christian teachings on responsible use of leisure.
- (b) Examine the effects of misuse of leisure among young people.
- (c) Assess African Traditional attitudes towards work and leisure.
- (d) Suggest practical measures for promoting responsible use of leisure.

PART II

Answer one item

ITEM 6

Residents of a district have become increasingly concerned about corruption, theft, domestic violence, land conflicts and abuse of human rights. Some people have resorted to mob justice and revenge attacks.

Religious leaders continue to advocate for justice, reconciliation and respect for the rule of law.

Tasks

- (a) Analyse Christian teachings on justice and human relationships.
- (b) Examine the causes of the challenges presented in the scenario.
- (c) Assess the role of law and legal institutions in promoting justice.
- (d) Suggest measures for promoting peace, justice and harmonious living in society.

OR

ITEM 7

Two neighbouring countries have been involved in a prolonged conflict over natural resources. Thousands of people have been displaced and many have suffered loss of property and livelihoods.

Religious leaders, international organizations and regional bodies have called for peaceful dialogue and reconciliation.

Tasks

- (a) Analyse Christian teachings on peace, reconciliation and forgiveness.
- (b) Examine the effects of armed conflict on society.
- (c) Assess the role of international organizations in promoting peace and justice.
- (d) Suggest measures that can promote lasting peace and international cooperation.
